

DID THE CALIFORNIAN FAIL TO ANSWER THE APPEAL FROM TITANIC?

STARTLING ACCUSATION MADE BY THE WIRELESS OPERATOR ON VESSEL WHICH IS ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN FROM SINKING SHIP.

CAPTAIN IS SUMMONED

Further Testimony Shows That the White Star Liner Was Not Even Equipped With Flares and Lights for the Various Life Boats—Women and Children Tossed Into Small Boats Like Sacks of Grain.

Washington, April 26.—Did the Californian desert the Titanic after having received its call for aid and allow sixteen hundred human beings to drown while but a few miles away? Captain Lord, of the liner Californian, prepared to enter a sweeping denial of the statement by Ernest Gill, took the stand at 3:10 p. m. Out of a mass of testimony taken from members of the crew of the ill-fated steamship Titanic by members of the senate committee who worked nearly all of last night, came several conflicting statements as to the judgment of officers and sailors on the evening of the vessel's condition after colliding with the iceberg Sunday night, April 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore.

OF WASHINGTON WHO WERE DROWNED IN TITANIC DISASTER.

15 minutes after the crash that he did not have half an hour to live and to keep the information quiet, and that this warning came in directly from manager Andrews of the firm of Harland and Wolff, builders of the Titanic who went down with the ship, was made by Samuel S. Hemming, a seaman. Hemming declared he had been awakened by the slight shock of the collision and again had gone back to bed but was soon alarmed by one of the ship's sailors who rushed in and told him and others to turn out. "Then the boatwater came and sunk it," Hemming said he was told. "You fellows have not half an hour to live," Hemming said he was told. This information came from Mr. Andrews.

Other witnesses from among the crew declared that they did not get a warning and that many of them were "skydiving and joking" after the accident. Several sailors told of seeing J. Bruce Murray managing director of the International Mercantile Marine after the accident and of his escape from the ship. One of them said Murray aided women and children into the boat George Rowe a quartermaster in charge of the life boat in which Mr. Murray left the Titanic said, Mr. Murray did not get into a boat until women and children failed to respond to a call. Murray, he declared was not ordered into the boat but stepped in just before it was lowered.

Many he said, issued no orders in the life boat, leaving him (Rowe) in absolute charge. In a sworn statement filed today with the senate committee, Ernest Gill, donkey engine man on the liner Californian now at Boston, said that vessel was so close to the Titanic on the night of the tragedy that the latter's distress rockets were plainly seen. He charged that the captain of the Californian refused to go to the aid of the distressed vessel. Captain Lord of the Californian in Boston last night denied Gill's statement. Gill said that the distress rockets were plainly visible from the decks of the Californian and must have been visible to both the bridge and the lookout. He tried to organize a committee of the crew to go to the captain and protest against his course but said they were "afraid they'd lose their jobs."

It was necessary for women and children on the sinking Titanic to jump a three foot chain from the decks to the life boats and babies were tossed into the boats according to the testimony given by P. O. Evans of the Titanic crew.

RECOVER BODIES OF ASTOR AND STRAUS

Word Received From Cable Ship Mackay-Bennett That Remains Had Been Identified.

New York, April 26.—The body of Col. John Jacob Astor and Isidor Straus, millionaire merchant of this city, who lost their lives in the Titanic disaster, have been recovered and are on board the cable ship Mackay-Bennett. News of the recovery of the bodies was obtained in a dispatch to the White Star office received today.

Find Hays' Body.

Hallifax, Nova Scotia, April 26.—The body of C. M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk railway, has been added to the list of identified dead picked up near the scene of the Titanic disaster.

The wireless dispatch which came to the company from the cableship, Mackay-Bennett gives the additional identification of the 49 of the heretofore unknown recovered dead on the cableship. Among others the body of Col. John Jacob Astor and Isidor Straus have been identified.

STOUGHTON MAN WAS A TITANIC VICTIM

J. F. Gill Was Returning From England Where He Had Taken a Bride Who Was to Follow Shortly.

Madison, Wis., April 26.—J. F. Gill, a citizen of Stoughton, this county, was one of the drowned passengers of the Titanic and his body has been recovered, according to news dispatched. Gill had married in England and left his bride to follow on a later boat. He came to Stoughton from England several years ago and was first employed on the farm of Griffith Smith, near here, and then in Stoughton. A grandmother died in England and he sailed for the old home to settle the estate, receiving a substantial legacy. Then he married and expected to make Chicago his home. He was 24 years old.

STRIKE CONFERENCE IS RESUMED TODAY

Representatives of Locomotive Engineers Meeting Today With Mediators in Wage Controversy.

New York, April 26.—Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the 29 district chairman of the organization resumed today their conference with U. S. labor commissioner Neill and Judge Knapp of the commerce court who are acting as mediators in the wage controversy between the engineers and the railway. The railway managers who have concluded their presentation of the case declared through J. C. Stuart chairman of the subcommittee that there had been no change in their original attitude. Mr. Stuart added, however, that he did not think there was cause for alarm on the possibility of a strike.

The conference of the engineers and the mediators adjourned shortly before one o'clock to be resumed at 3:30. Both Judge Knapp and Commissioner Neill said nothing new had developed.

ADVANCE IN WHEAT FOLLOWS CROP NEWS

Chicago, April 26.—Excessive buying of wheat today put up the price of cereal 2 1/2 and 3 1/2 cents above the figures current 21 hours before. The market closed strong within a shade of the top point of the session. The July option at 112 5/8 to a rise of 3 cents, a bushel from the low level of the day. What caused the advance was the receipt of the worst reports of the week on the Kansas wheat crop.

NO ELABORATE SUPPLIES FOR LAWMAKERS' DESKS.

Madison, Wis., April 26.—Members of the Wisconsin legislature who return for the extra session next Tuesday should bring their "plunder" boxes with them to avoid disappointment. Superintendent of Public Property William L. Essmann declares he will not honor requisitions of members for Sanborn's Supplements, or elaborate outfits of desk supplies, with all of which they were supplied during the long session. The statutes cost $150 per volume and a bill introduced by Senator J. Elmer Lohr early in the session every member was provided with a set.

MAY SETTLE AFFAIRS OF WISCONSIN EQUITY NEWS.

Madison, Wis., April 26.—A movement has been started to settle up the affairs of the Wisconsin Equity News, published by the Wisconsin and American Society of Equity. The paper is published in this city and had 900 stockholders. There are 12,000 members on record in the state union.

LAST SOLEMN HONOR TO GENERAL GRANT AT FUNERAL TODAY

Men Prominent in Military, Public and Private Life Gather to Pay Last Respects.

New York, April 26.—Military men and men prominent in public and private life gathered here today to pay the last solemn honors to Major General Frederick Dent Grant, who died here April 11th. Funeral exercises were deferred until today to await the arrival of the General's daughter, the Princess Cantacuzene, from her home in Russia.

The services were held in the Chapel of Cornelius Vanderbilt on Governor's Island. The little chapel was too small to allow the attendance of the general public but an opportunity was given to all New York to pay its tribute as the long military procession made its way to the sound of muffled drums over a five mile line of march from the Battery to the West shore ferry at 32nd street.

President Taft, Vice President Sherman, Leonard Wood, were perhaps the most distinguished persons who came to the funeral. The general's immediate family all were present including Mrs. Grant, her son, Captain U. S. Grant, the Princess Cantacuzene, the General's sister, Mrs. Nellie Grant, General's daughter, Mrs. Grant's brother and sister, John Lockwood, brother of Chicago and the Potter family.

WILL STUDY COURSE IN FIRE PREVENTION

Daily Fire Drills Will Also be Part of Work Prescribed for Wisconsin School Children.

Madison, Wis., April 26.—The Wisconsin school boys are about to have a new burden foisted upon him. He will be asked to study lessons on "Fire and Fire Prevention." That this new course is to be added to the curriculum is indicated in the Arher and Bird State annual just issued by C. P. Cary, state superintendent of public instruction. Just how the novel subject will be taught is not known, but it will probably be made a part of the course now taught in all of the country schools for the study of agriculture.

A general outline of the course may be summarized thus: Children should be taught the loss in lives and property from fire, that most of this loss is preventable, and that just as the human fire loss affects everybody, so the cooperation of every man, woman and child is necessary to remedy the evil. Instruction in causes of fire and their prevention; require practical work at school and at home which will establish right habits and attitudes with regard to fire prevention. Daily fire drills in all schools of more than one story.

The state superintendent expects substantial results based upon those already obtained by the state fire marshal's department in conducting an educational campaign. The loss from incendiarism had decreased from $120,000 in 1908 to $35,115 in 1910, and there has been a similar decrease from fire losses from other causes.

MILLION DOLLAR COMPANY TO MANUFACTURE BOATS

Offices of New Corporation Will be at Shell Lake, Wis.—Madison Alternative Incorporators.

Madison, Wis., April 26.—A million-dollar corporation known as the Racine-Truscott-Shell Lake Boat company, has filed articles with the secretary of state. The office will be at Shell Lake, Wisconsin county, and boats of all descriptions will be manufactured. The incorporators are J. M. Smith, John M. Olin and W. R. Curkett, the latter two being lawyers of Madison. The Northern Milling company of Wisconsin has increased its capital stock from $50,000 to $1,000,000.

Delegates from ten universities and colleges are attending the meeting, which will continue over tomorrow.

VOYAGE OF OLYMPIC IS NOW ABANDONED

White Star Liner Returns to Port Today Following Strike of Firemen and Officers.

Southampton, Eng., April 26.—The voyage of the Olympic has been abandoned to port. Unexpected trouble followed the departure of 300 firemen of the White Star liner Olympic when the British Southerland union today suddenly demanded the dismissal of eighteen firemen belonging to the union who remained on the Olympic when the seamen struck because of the condition of the lifeboats.

The demand was made by a delegation of strikers and members of the Southerland union, who went on board the liner to test the new collapsible lifeboats installed since the disaster to the Titanic.

The company has refused to consider the men's demands and declares it prefers to take the liner back to Southampton and lay her up. The Olympic lies off Ryde, Isle of Wight, the officers having succeeded in obtaining only a fifth of the necessary firemen to work the ship when it was laid up.

This course was made necessary by the desertion of her seamen this morning when the line attempted to replace the striking firemen with non-union men. 121 passengers who were awaiting the Olympic at Queenstown have been transferred to the Baltic which will leave here for New York, 1,100 sacks of mail which were to have been forwarded by the Olympic will be held at Queenstown for the Cunard liner Lusitania sailing from Liverpool for New York tomorrow and due here Sunday.

The Cunard is likely to reach for this reason the mail will be entrusted to her. The strike assumes a serious aspect beyond the matter of serious aspect beyond the matter of the seamen having been bound for the voyage have now laid themselves open to the charge of mutiny.

This afternoon the striking seamen who included six quartermasters, were arraigned in police court at Portsmouth, charged with mutiny. They pleaded not guilty and were remanded for trial next Monday. The court accepted bail for their appearance.

TELLS QUEER STORY OF HER ABDUCTION

Chicago Girl Who Has Been Missing Tells Parents on Return She Was Drugged and Taken Away.

Chicago, April 26.—Frances Nell Zell, 17 years old who disappeared last Tuesday returned to her parents today and told of having been kidnapped by a man known to her as "John," who took her to a lonely spot near St. Joseph, Mich., where she was held as a prisoner. She said she was held while on the train but the man drew a revolver and threatened to kill her unless she kept quiet. The girl is the daughter of Vincent Zell, a merchant. The victim said there was another girl in the hotel when she was taken there. The other girl was about 20 years old and gave Frances $3 and sent her to St. Joseph to buy a coat. Instead of making the purchase she bought a railway ticket and returned to Chicago. The girl declared she was not mistreated by the man.

MURDER OF GERMAN WOMAN IN MEXICO HAD OCCURRED MORE THAN A YEAR AGO

Story Recently Widely Circulated Presumably to Be Ancient History.

Washington, April 26.—The story of the murder of a German woman in Cuyahuala, Mexico, by brigands, told by refugees recently, and widely published in a year and a half old, according to the state department's records which show that the affair occurred during the Mexican revolution, and was made the object of a claim which has been paid by the Mexican government.

Appleton, April 26.—After having driven his daughter, a bride of yesterday and the balance of her wedding party, to Appleton to take a train, William Meyer, a 1960 farmer, was found dead on the road this morning, a short distance from his home. His skull was fractured. So far as is known, Meyer left Appleton for his home early last night. It is not known whether he fell from the seat of his wagon, when his horses ran away, or whether he met with foul play.

MENASHA WOMAN'S BODY WAS FOUND IN CISTERN

Mrs. Albert Syring in Fit of Despondency Committed Suicide While Husband Was at Work.

Menasha, April 26.—Mrs. Albert Syring, aged 49, committed suicide today by drowning in a cistern at her home. Her dead body was discovered by her husband when he returned from work. On two previous occasions Mrs. Syring had attempted to end her life by drinking Paris green and carbolic acid but was saved by physicians. She leaves a husband and several children.

ARMY TRANSPORT TO PICK UP REFUGEES

Transport Buford Will Leave San Francisco Sunday to Pick up American Refugees in Mexico.

Washington, April 26.—The army transport Buford will leave San Francisco Sunday for the west coast of Mexico to pick up any American refugees who may wish to leave the country. The Buford will visit Tepic, Culiacan, Mazatlan and Acapulco in Guerrero.

The vessel is sent at the request of the state department after urgent requests from many Americans stranded in the states bordering the Pacific.

Since the rebels began to make headway in their operations along the Pacific coast communication has been cut with many of the interior towns where Americans are known to reside.

This has left the state department and others without any information as to the safety of these people and this in the face of numerous reports of the organized acts of both bandits and rebel forces.

Constant appeals came to the state department to use some method of ascertaining the welfare of these people but the officials tried other means in an effort to ward off the necessity of sending a United States vessel to the west coast.

Today's reports to the state department declare the situation throughout Mexico is generally becoming worse. Bands of marauders are causing much uneasiness by their activities. While the Buford is a government vessel it is laid upon the fact that there will be no United States soldiers aboard and the only persons bearing the United States flag will be the doctors and some members of the hospital corps taken along to look after the sick among the refugees.

State department advisers indicate that there are perhaps 500 Americans likely to avail themselves of this opportunity to leave Mexico. About 200 of these are at Los Mochis and vicinity, and probably 300 more scattered down the coast as far as Sinaloa Cruz.

THREE MEN DROWNED IN LAKE AT DULUTH

Were Returning to Steamer Last Night When Overwhelmed by Fog.

Duluth, Minn., April 26.—Three men from the Portage steamer "North Star," due to arrive here on her first trip today, perished in the bay late last night. The two bodies were recovered by the life-saving crew.

The three men had gone into the city to do some shopping previous to boarding the steamer returning after a heavy fog had settled about the dock, and in some manner walked off the edge of the dock. The dead: James Judge, 40, thirty-eight years old, of Harbor Beach, Mich.; Frank Smith, 40, thirty-three years old, of 8827 Richmond street, Philadelphia; Albert Foreman, 18 years old, of Forestville, Mich. His body has not been found.

DENIES STATEMENT CREDITED TO HIM

President Taft Makes Formal Denial of Statement That Roosevelt Would Be a Dictator if Elected.

New York, April 26.—Before leaving the home of his brother Henry W. Taft to attend the memorial exercises for the late Major General Frederick Dent Grant at Governor's Island President Taft issued a formal denial that he had said in his speech at Springfield, Mass., yesterday that Gen. Theodore Roosevelt would be a dictator and sit for the White House like a leech if he were elected for a third term. The president said "I did not use the language attributed to me in some of the dispatches in which I am made to say Mr. Roosevelt would be a dictator and stick like a leech to the White House."

VARSITY STUDENT CHARGED WITH CORRUPT PRACTICES

Editor of "Gadger" Haled Before Student Court Charged With Giving Candy to Co-Eds.

Madison, April 26.—Several boxes of candy which the ROT cadets have been munching lately have caused editor-elect Arthur W. Hallam, of the Gadger to be haled in the student court for alleged violation of the conference election rules. He pleaded not guilty to the charge which is before the student's tribunal. The case was adjourned until next Monday because of lack of witnesses. The charge is made that Hallam prior to his election distributed boxes of bitter sweets to the women voters and thus unduly influenced them in the casting of their ballots.

HADLEY TURNS TIDE AND SWINGS EIGHT VOTES FOR COLONEL

Four Hour Quodlock Broken This Morning Brings Complete Victory for Roosevelt in Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., April 26.—Gov. Herbert S. Hadley and his friends early today swung the state republican convention for Colonel Roosevelt after twenty four hours of deadlock in which the Taft leaders finally were driven to surrender.

Eight delegates at large to the national republican convention all Roosevelt men and all instructed for him were selected after the Taft leaders had been elected and then had resigned their places on the Missouri delegation which voted instructions for Roosevelt.

The convention will go down in the annals of the history of Missouri politics as one of the most stubborn and drastic fights in the history of the state republican organization.

Mayor Frederick H. Krejmann of St. Louis, and Chas. D. Morris of St. Joseph, the latter chairman of the state committee were the Taft leaders elected and who resigned as delegates at large to the national convention when the state convention voted to instruct the delegates at large for Roosevelt.

In making their resignation they charged violation of a "gentlemen's agreement" by which they declared the Roosevelt managers had assured them that delegates at large would be unrestricted. Gov. Hadley replied to this connection by asserting that he had not been a party to any so-called "gentlemen's agreement."

The governor asserted that through the bitter fight which preceded the formal opening of the convention he had refused to attempt to deliver the vote of Roosevelt delegation on any proposition. As national committee men from Missouri to succeed Chas. Nagel, secretary of the convention, the convention elected Thos. K. Nephewhouse of St. Louis.

The Roosevelt forces only showed a final sweeping attack four distinct fights with the Taft leaders who resisted each step stubbornly.

After the convention adjourned several Taft leaders went to a hotel to the national convention. Former state senator Henry L. Eads of Janesport, was president at the convention and B. L. Gifford of Hays, was secretary. Eads announced that resolutions condemning Gov. Hadley for betraying the Taft men in the pre-convention agreement were adopted. The resolutions also praised the administration of President Taft.

PROCLAMATION MADE BY MAYOR FATHERS

DESIGNATES MAY 1, 2 AND 3 CLEAN-UP, FIRE PREVENTION AND ARBOR DAYS.

URGES THOROUGHNESS

Anti-Tuberculosis Association To Sell Tickets for Defraying Expense of Teaming.

PROCLAMATION.

"To aid in the 'Conservation Crusade' and designating May 1st, 2nd and 3rd as 'Clean-up,' 'Fire Prevention' and 'Arbor' days.
"I, therefore, urge and recommend to the citizens in general, a 'cleaning up' and disposal of all inflammable and combustible material and rubbish, wherever found on their premises, whether in yards, alleys, cellars, spaces under gratings in sidewalks, basements, storerooms, attics and around sheds and barns.
"It is in this rubbish that we find the needed fuel for, perhaps, a destructive fire or conflagration; also in this dirt, dust, filth, rubbish and debris, lurk the germs of disease and contagion. For these and many other reasons let us devote our general 'cleaning-up' on the days mentioned.
"Health Officer Cunningham has done much by way of organization to put in to effect this much-needed work, of which all have been advised through the columns of the press.
"Let all unite and assist in this 'Conservation Crusade' movement and contribute to the safety, health and beauty of our city.
JAMES A. FATHERS, Mayor.

Mayor James A. Fathers, at the adjourned meeting of the council held in the mayor's office yesterday afternoon, presented and had read the foregoing proclamation designating May 1, 2 and 3 as 'Clean-up,' 'Fire Prevention' and 'Arbor' days, thus giving his official and formal approval of the movement now in progress to make Janesville a cleaner, healthier and more beautiful city. Associated with him in his endorsement are Councilmen Millmore and Cunningham, the Commercial Club, the Anti-Tuberculosis association and the Women's Clubs of the city, not to mention a great number of public spirited citizens with no organization to voice their approval.

Secretary F. E. Lane of the Commercial Club, and James E. Hild of the board of directors of that organization, were present at the meeting held in the assembly room at the city hall yesterday afternoon and expressed their appreciation and endorsement of the work which had been undertaken. The raising of money to pay the teamsters by selling tickets at their approval and they thought it should be an easy matter to collect enough money for this purpose. This plan, submitted by Health Officer Dr. M. A. Cunningham, was also declared satisfactory by the ward council superintendents and their assistants, and members of the Civic Improvement Committee of the Women's Clubs of the city who were present.
"To be more specific, the idea was broached and approved, to have the ward superintendents and their assistants make a thorough canvass of the city, working in the districts apportioned to them. The tickets, which will cost twenty-five cents each, will be offered for sale to all who have rubbish to be removed, and as the money is to be devoted to a worthy purpose, those not having rubbish to be disposed of, will be approached also. The same workers will collect the tickets on the clean-up days. In this way a fund will be raised out of which the teamsters will be paid. Since the teamsters are assured of compensation it is thought there will be no difficulty in obtaining the services of a sufficient number. Those who are willing to furnish teams and wagons are requested to notify Health Officer Cunningham as soon as possible.

J. O'NEILL DIES AT HOME IN MAGNOLIA

Well Known Resident of Magnolia, Passes Away at the Age of Forty-Four Years.

John O'Neill died at his home in Magnolia, April 19, 1912.

The deceased was born in Ireland, and came to America in 1868 settling on a farm in Magnolia, Wisconsin, where he lived until the time of his death.

On April 22, 1855, he was united in marriage to Anna Corbett, who still survives him. To this union were born six children, four sons, Peter, and Michael of Minneapolis, Minn., Martin of Cherokee, Iowa, and John who died in infancy and two daughters, Mrs. Thomas, Neely and Mary O'Neill of this place.

Beloved the immediate family he leaves to mourn his loss sixteen grandchildren, three great grandchildren and a host of friends.

He was a man of cheerful disposition and through the trials of an early widow's life always looked on the bright side.

Solomon high mass was celebrated at the Catholic church at Albany, by the Rev. Father Smith of Broadhead, who was assisted by the Broadhead choir.

The pall bearers were Martin and Peter Garry, Thos. Grady and Patrick John and William Neely. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery at Albany.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Thomas E. Morrissey, Requeim mass for Mrs. T. E. Morrissey, a former Janesville woman, who died at her home in Chicago Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock, was celebrated in St. Mary's church this morning at eleven o'clock by the Rev. Father W. A. Goebel. The funeral party and remains arrived here from Chicago this morning and proceeded at once to the church. Those acting as pall bearers were: Fred Jones, Thomas Morrissey, Thomas F. Abbott, E. H. Connell and Dennis McGulley. Burial was made in Mt. Olivet cemetery. Those from out of the city who attended the funeral were the husband of the deceased, T. E. Morrissey, Edward, Charles and Frank Cunningham of Chicago, and A. C. Cunningham of Columbus, Ohio; her sisters, Mrs. Charles Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy McGuen, Mrs. Caron and Miss Mary Lawless of Chicago, and Mrs. George Souther and daughter Anna of Elgin.

Mrs. George Beale, whose remains arrived in Janesville yesterday, was formerly Miss Mercy A. Carpenter, and a resident of this city. She was married to Mr. Beale in Janesville, July 16, 1868. For many years her home has been in Lynn, Mass., at which place her death occurred. Her remains were brought to Janesville by her brother, Myron J. Carpenter, president of the Southern Indiana railway, and were placed in the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery, where rests her father, mother and older sister. Those who accompanied the body to Janesville were: Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Carpenter, Miss Marlon Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. John Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beale (a son of the deceased), and wife and two sons.

Tamed Sea Gulls.

That sea gulls may be domesticated has been demonstrated at Long Beach by Miss Mignon Le Brun of Los Angeles, Cal. So familiar have the gulls become about her as she takes her morning walk along the beach, and after she has been among them for a short time, some of the birds will even perch on her shoulder and take food from her fingers. She has been many weeks in overcoming the fears of the birds. Her appearance with her customary handful of table scraps is hailed with a cry of delight by the gulls. Instantly they are in the air, deserting their usual feeding places, and hovering over the head and in front of Miss Le Brun. Then they will drop to the sands and feed at the feet of the young woman as complacently as might a flock of pet chickens.

SPORT SNAP SHOTS by DAN Mc CARTHY

If you happen to be one of those rook-brooded individuals who can't let a sporting event slip by without picking a winner, then, and if you are interested in the coming fall in New York between Champion Johnny Kilbane and Johnny Daddie, take a tip from your Uncle Dan and don't make too much of a play on Dime-doe's chances.

The bantam champ and his shrewd manager, Jimmy Dunn, are following the example of other champions, Abe Attell and Ad Wolgast, in their insistence that Kilbane's adversaries in affairs of limited length be placed at a disadvantage. They have stipulated in the present instance that Dundee, who is a large-boned, big-muscle youth, weigh in at 22 at 3 o'clock. To make the weight is going to sap his strength considerably. But then, of course, Kilbane is the dictator, this will be his crowd probably will be a tremendous one, and with so much money in sight the boy with the Scotch make-up (who is really an Italian) can well afford to take a chance.

Stick a pin in this, though, Dundee will be a beaten man before he ever climbs into the ring. He hasn't a ghost of a show of trimming the Cleveland lad.

It's a mighty good thing for a ball club to have a leader like Harry Wolverton, the Yankees' new manager. The Yanks lost six games this season in as many starts, yet never once did Wolverton give any evidence of discouragement. His faith in his men remained unshaken.

"The stuff is there," he said, when impatient fans began to knock. "The boys will hit their stride soon, and when they do the team will make 'em all sit up and take notice."

The prevalent weakness of Wolverton's pitching staff has been an enigma. It ought to be one of the most effective stunts in captivity. There isn't a twister in the bunch who isn't unusually equipped with reported mysteries of the cunning art. The department carries a strong array of spitball manipulators, some rare curve masters, and a couple of south-paw artists. Yet in spite of all this, the work of the bullpen has been a bitter disappointment to all Gotham.

"Uncle Tom" McCarthy is planning to put on some corking good battles at his Vernon club arena at Vernon, Cal., during the next few weeks. If all goes well, McCarthy will be considerably richer by the Fourth of July than he is now.

A slant at the contemplated program shows a lot of good things. He starts off with a bout between Frankie Conley and Jack White on April 27, the winner to have a shot at Abe Attell on May 11. Then, on May 27, Howard Morrow, Tommy Ryan's middleweight championship possibility, will tangle Eddie McGoorty. The last time they got together Edward made Howard look rather amateurish. The real big noise will be the engagement on June 5 between Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette. Whitehorse of the maddened gent's survivor will go after a match with Johnson, McCarthy announced. The Fourth of July card, of course will be Wolgast vs. Rivera, 12, ought to be one of the biggest money-makers ever staged, with the exception of the Reno tragedy.

DACKBONE OF THREE TEAMS.

When the American League season opens in April, 3 teams, Boston, Washington, and St. Louis, will jump into the season of 1912 with new vim and confidence which was not their's one year ago. This is due primarily to three individuals, Stahl of Boston, Stovall of St. Louis, and Clark Griffith of Washington. The change in ownership at Boston gives the Red Sox in the famous Jake Stahl, a first baseman the peer of any in the baseball world today. And this is the one weak spot in the Boston lineup. The change in management at Cleveland sends to St. Louis a first baseman in Stovall which will bolster up the Browns materially. In Washington great things are expected of Clark Griffith because of his ability as a quick trader. He has started out the season by already putting one over in landing Jack Knight from New York at small cost.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENED AT MILTON

Good Schedule of Games for College Nine is Announced—High School to Meet Whitewater [SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Milton, April 26.—Milton College will have a strenuous baseball season according to the schedule that has been arranged. The first college game was played with the Beloit college team at Beloit on Tuesday. The Milton boys played a consistent game and were defeated by the close score of 6 to 3. North, on the slab for Milton, did some first-class pitching work and held the Beloit boys to nine hits. Milton gleaned a total of eight hits. The probable line-up of the Milton team is as follows in batting order: G. Crandall, c; Ernst, c; North, p; P. Crandall, rf; Ford, lf; Burdick, ss; Thorngate, 3b.

The games scheduled are as follows: May 3, Whitewater Normal at Milton; May 15, Northwestern College at Milton; May 21, Northwestern College at Watertown; June 7, Plattville Normal at Milton; June 13, Plattville Normal at Milton; June 18, Almond at Milton. Possibly one game with Lawrence College May 28 and two with Ripon.

High School Game. The high school team will open the baseball season here Thursday, when they meet the crack Whitewater nine. He sure and patrolled this game for there will be something doing all the time between these old rivals.

BREAK UP THE SOLID NORTH.

"Theodore Roosevelt has put forth the only argument thus far heard for his nomination," says the Wall Street Journal. "He thinks he may be able politically to break up the solid South; but is the South any longer a large political factor? It is not yet more important to break up the solid North?"

"If Governor Foss can split republican protectionist New England in the coming presidential election, he becomes a democratic possibility whom the strongest republican candidate could not afford to despise. The circumstances of his election as governor of Massachusetts are sufficiently significant to be worth recalling."

"It will be remembered that Eugene N. Foss accepted the challenge of the protected manufacturers of New England, and carried the strongly republican Cape Cod district of Massachusetts, on free raw materials and lower food prices by reciprocity treaties. In 1910, denounced by State street and by the financial interests of Boston, by Senator Lodge, and Mr. Roosevelt himself upon the stump in Massachusetts, Foss carried the state by thirty-five thousand. His campaign expenditures, as filed, were under $10,000.

"In 1911 he declined absolutely to make any expenditures, or permit any by his family. The publication of a pamphlet setting forth his record as governor was all he would permit, and in spite of the pleadings of the democratic committee he even declined to countenance the hiring of carriages and automobiles to bring voters to the polls, as he had advocated laws against such expenditures in order to keep money out of election issues.

"The republicans had all the votes they wanted, and brought out the full vote. Those astute political managers, the two United States senators from Massachusetts, with the national committee behind them, polled every available vote. Foss fought single-handed with his pamphlet, his record and his most capable self. He won by 8,000 votes. With a campaign financed on the basis of previous contests, he could have won by 50,000.

"With the success of Mr. Roosevelt in recent primary elections the democratic party cannot afford to give away their advantage by risking a split. The irreconcilables who support men of such widely separated qualities and aims as Champ Clark and Jackson Harmon might yet find neutral ground for supporting Foss, where neither Underwood nor Woodrow Wilson could unite the party. It is anybody's race at the present time, both as regards the nomination and the presidency. Mr. Foss' chances are at least as good as anybody's, however little he may be acceptable to the powerful financiers and beneficiaries of privilege.

"Governor Foss has not yet had a hat, a glove or a delegate in the ring, but the American voter is singularly independent in these later years. The politician proposes, but the voter disposes after all. Pledged delegations, even when they are elected by direct primaries, interpret their instructions with considerable latitude. The humiliating defeat of Mr. Bryan at the Nebraska primaries cannot but reflect upon his presidential preference. And of the possibilities now formally before the party not one possesses the power of Eugene N. Foss in the New England states, where the democratic party has been hopelessly outnumbered for a century."

OH PIFFLE.
Even before the new city officials have had a chance to become accustomed to the duties of their office, disgruntled citizens begin to talk of formulating a recall for certain officials who have not listened to the individuals words of counsel, given with a selfish idea. It is laughable in the extreme but to be expected on the part of men who have so long controlled the minutest details of city life to be angry when they find they are not the powers they were or thought they would be. Citizens generally are satisfied with the commissioners that have been elected, and it would take considerable more than the vapors of disgruntled office-seekers to really start anything that would not be a huge joke. The mayor and councilmen have started out in the right direction and mean business. They have the approval of the majority of the citizens and if they have hit a decided rap at certain interests that thought they were immune from prosecution, these interests have only themselves to thank. Stick to it, Mr. Commissioners, and the people will be back of you.

RAPS THE BOARDS.
Janesville residents who heard Attorney General Hancock speak before the Twilight club a year ago, will remember that he is a gentleman who does not mind words. At Racine last night he evidenced the same disposition he did in Janesville while discussing state affairs. The dispatch reciting the affair is interesting and is as follows:

"Attacking the tax commission for the income tax law and the railroad commission, and claiming that Madison is filled with men who, as members of commissions, are drawing enormous salaries and doing little, Attorney General Level H. Hancock, during a debate before the Six O'clock club, at Racine last night, declared that these commissions were created for office-seekers or to help political machines and that they had not saved the taxpayers a penny, but annually cost the state hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"He said that Wisconsin is the home of so-called reformers, and that more laws had been enacted by the legislature of the state in ten years than England had adopted in half a century."

THAT EXTRA SESSION.
Governor McGovern, friend of the people, has taken upon himself to call a special session of the legislature for the sole purpose of creating political capital. If he really meant to be in earnest he would listen to the demand of the people for a recall of the income tax law and other obnoxious creations of the last semi-socialistic legislature. However the state still has some hope in the voters and that ultimately these laws will be wiped off the statute books.

CLEAN-UP DAY.
The plan for a general cleaning up of the city and keeping it clean is appealing to citizens generally and the renewed interest in the proposed most appearance of the city evidenced that Janesville will be the city beautiful before fall. In this connection teamsters will be warned relative to dropping sand, gravel, stones or garbage as they pass along the streets. They can do more damage in a few days than the street department can repair in a week.

TAFT VERSUS ROOSEVELT.
It is a decided case of a battle royal between the Taft and Roosevelt forces throughout the country. Taft carried Iowa, and his followers had to compromise in Missouri, but still the president has the lead in list of delegates thus far named. The Chicago convention is going to be a warm place in more ways than one, and something is going to pop with a sound that will be heard from one end of the country to the other.

They are discovering new comets and stars in California. Yet everybody supposed that when women got the ballot the men would have to stay at home nights.

Now that Frank H. Stockton's shade has opened communication with the world, perhaps he will at least consent to tell us whether it was the Lady or the Tiger?

"The High Court is full again for the first time in six months," says the New Orleans States. We wouldn't dare say that about any of our judges.

It has developed that Sidna Allen, the head of the Virginia outlaw gang, has just built a $30,000 house. Perhaps he was after a plumber instead of a judge.

Texas produced 9,000,000 barrels of petroleum in 1911. As even a Texan can't drink petroleum, this must seem like a useless waste of energy to him.

After the two big conventions have been held, perhaps some of the energy now given to politics may be diverted for a time to the swatting of the fly.

Remember the cake walk? Perhaps the day will come when we can ask the same question about rag-time.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT
By Roy K. Moulton.

According to Uncle Abner, After all that is said and done, there is only one way to get rich and that is to make a whole lot of money and hang onto it.

There are other signs of great wealth that a fellow kin show besides walking down the street smoking a cigar with a gold band on it.

One of the most side-splitting bits of humor going is to see a fellow with a red necktie on, and ask him how he got the necktie.

Anna Miller has got a fine new Pumphrey six cylinder. His wife also has a machine which occupies all of her time and attention. It is a Singer. It seems funny that every woman's hat is in a different shape, but so is every woman for that matter.

As It Appears.
When I grow up I'm going to be an actor, fellow, you, abner, He's got the softest snip I know And certainly he gets the dough, He always wears a nice dress suit, And blue plug hat and gloves to boot, He lives in houses that are grand, And all he has to do is stand, Around and speak his little piece Which seems to flow as sleek as grease, Or else he sets upon gilt chairs, Which are around 'most every where, He's always had'n some nice gal That he has managed to corral, Don't make no difference 'bout the crowd, He kisses her and right out loud, He's always got some nice green cash That he can hand right out and flash, He keeps the heroine from harm, The folks all say that he's the stuff,

And though it may be just a bluff He is a hero grand, all right, For two or three hours every night.

The Popular Idol.
Bill is shy on education and his ways are somewhat crude. He affects a rubber dollar and can't be called a dude. But he never muffs a grounder, as a Table manners are erratic and he eats peas with his knife. Couldn't read a word of Latin if it were to save his life. But he always hits 300. He's the idol of the strife. Bill can neither waltz or two-step and is shy on etiquette. In a dress suit he's the limit; suggest guy you ever met, But he CAN pound out three baggers and he is the one best bet.

Truthful Things We Never Hear.
"Your daughter has got the worst voice I ever heard. She ought to have it filed."

"That new suit of yours, Cathbert, looks as though it had been cut out with a cross-cut saw. It's the limit."

"Did you say your daughter is taking piano lessons? So far as ever becoming a musician is concerned she might just as well take private acid."

"No, I don't like your new house. It looks like a cross between a Carnegie library in a town of 1,300 and a Queen Anne middle factory. There's no accounting for tastes."

"I suppose I shall have to invite you to get in my automobile some time, but heaven knows I don't want to. I will try and call some afternoon when you are not at home."

Heart to Heart Talks.
By EDWIN A. NYE.

TO THE BOSS.
Do you employ young men? Has it occurred to you that you own these young men more than their wages?

Or if you fight shy of moral considerations—have you considered that by raising the standard of honor and conduct of these young fellows you might profit thereby?

They pattern after you. Consciously or not, those who work for you look up to you and follow your example. What more natural? You are their ideal. You have succeeded in your business. They hope to succeed in the same business. Why should they not imitate your ways and follow your methods?

Therefore—Your standards of business and of life, your habits and purposes will become theirs.

You may urge that your life is your private affair. You may say to your people, "Do as I say, not as I do." Nevertheless they will judge your creed by your actions. It is a rare young man who is able to profit by the errors of his boss and avoid them. You cannot conceal your real character.

For example—If you are accustomed to use sharp practices in your deals, if you deceive your customers, your employees know it. Unconsciously they will adopt as their code, "the honest with the firm, but cheat other people." If you will think a moment you will see where that sort of "honesty" leads.

If you saw dishonesty you will of dishonesty grow looser.

And if you swear, habitually or occasionally, you may expect to hear the echo of your oaths in the mouths of your underlings. And if you lose your pulse and your temper you will lose the respect of your people.

If you drink, even occasionally, you set the example for your helpers. You may have strict rules forbidding the use of liquor, but you will find that your habits count for more than your rules.

If you gamble your men will know it, and if some time one of them embezzles your money to pay his gambling debts you will discover why he did it.

If you speculate look out. The boys under you will speculate. This is not a proclamation. It is straight speech—man fashion. He is not deceived. Decency, cleanliness of life, fine purposes, are yet at a premium in the business world and will always be.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Entertainment Committee: A committee on entertainment composed of Mrs. E. H. McGowan, Hon. J. M. Whitehead, Mrs. Farnsworth, F. A. Capelle, C. S. Cleland, and Mrs. Chas. Lange, have been named by the local Congregational church to entertain and provide for the delegates to the meeting of the Baptist Association of Congregational churches which will be held here May 21 and 22.

Adjourned Until Saturday: The council at the close of a brief meeting yesterday afternoon adjourned until 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The principal matter brought up was the proclamation of Mayor Farnsworth designating clean-up day.

At Work on Wing Walls: Forms for the abutment and wing walls on the west end of the Racine street bridge have been made and the concrete work started. The concrete floor and curbs are all in and the sidewalks laid for half the distance across from the east bank. Brick for paving prepared on the west bank approach and will be laid in a short time.

Painting Rink: The exterior appearance of the Auditorium building is being improved by the application of a fresh coat of paint.

Has Aristocratic Ideas.
"She seems to be such a precocious child." "Yes, she has already begun to look down with contempt on other little girls who want more than one doll."

Why Named.
The old-fashioned name of bridegroom was formerly given to the newly married man because it was customary for him to wait at table on his bride and friends on his wedding day.

Or the Coupons They Clip.
Most prominent men are known by the checks they cash.

High Halden of the Twins.
The village of High Halden, near Ashford, England, undoubtedly holds the record for the number of twins born there. Ten children, all of whom are twins, attend the village school regularly. Every morning two or three can be seen carrying two young twins to school, all being members of one family.

Had to Have His Cigar.
There have been many devotees of the cold cigar. Likst was one. Now some say that the nibbe could not play the piano unless he had a cigar in his mouth. But he did not light it or smoke it; he used to eat it. He would sit down to the instrument with a big cigar between his teeth and keep munching all the time he played. When the cigar was eaten up the performance closed.

To Raise Sunkn Vessels.
Compressed air is recommended by Cosmo, Paris, as the best means of raising sunken vessels, and the journal says the old methods should be abandoned. It points to a number of big boats which have been rescued from the deep this way.

SAUL OF TARSUS SAW THE GLORIFIED JESUS

Another of Many Proofs That Jesus Is No Longer a Man.

Brooklyn's Famous Pastor Discourses on Words of St. Paul, "Last of All Jesus Was Seen of Me Also, as One Born Prematurely"—Third of a Series of Sermons on the Resurrection.

PASTOR RUSSELL

New Orleans, La., April 25.—Pastor Russell gave two addresses here today; he had crowded out of his addresses, which were from the text: "Last of all He was seen of me also, as one born prematurely"—(1 Cor. xv, 8). He said:—

St. Paul was discussing the resurrection of the dead. He realized that on that great fact rested the weight of the Gospel Message. It was easy enough to prove that Jesus had died, but to an incredulous world it was difficult to prove that He had risen from the dead; and whoever could not believe that great fact could not believe the other great facts which stand or fall with it.

"Last of All He Was Seen by Me."

Presenting his argument, the Apostle marshaled the whole chain of witnesses except the women who first saw the Lord on the morning of His resurrection. He says, "He was seen of Cephas (Peter); then by the remainder of the twelve; then of above five hundred brethren at once; later, He was seen of James, then of all the Apostles," when He ascended. Then comes the text: "Last of all, He was seen of me also."

There is something pathetic in this reference to his own glimpse of Jesus. It called up the period of his biggest persecution of the Church. It reminded him of his responsibility in connection with the death of St. Stephen, and of the madness which he had manifested in pursuing Christians even to Damascus, bidding them to prison. Again, he saw the great, blinding light from heaven, above the brightness of the noonday sun, his fall to the earth, and heard the voice speaking to him, saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?"—Acts ix, 1-9; xxvi, 12-18.

Why Jews Objected to Jesus.

The objection which all Jews had to Jesus, and what they considered absolute proof that He was not the Messiah, was His apparent inability to accomplish the things foretold by the Prophets. They said, It is foolish to think of a man without an army and without wealth claiming to be a king. It is still more foolish for Him to claim that He is the Messiah King, who is to be above all kings, and before whom every knee shall bow and every tongue confess.

To them it seemed that when He was crucified a demonstration had been given that He was not the Messiah. Was not the Messiah to live forever? Must it not, therefore, be true that any man whom the Jews or the Romans could crucify must have been an impostor? They considered the matter proven to a demonstration.

St. Paul's Honesty Strengthening.

The honesty of Saul of Tarsus led him to be just as honest after he got his eyes of understanding open as he had been previously with them closed. The situation changed immediately in his mind; instead of a human Savior and Messiah and an earthly King, God had prepared a Heavenly One, partaker of the divine nature, glorious, "far above angels, principalities and powers."

I like to think of St. Paul as exemplifying possibly a large class of the opposers of the Truth. I like to hope that all they will need to bring them into line with God's arrangements and to make them loyal servants of righteousness will be the great light which will shine forth resplendently very soon, when the due time shall come for Messiah to take to Himself His great power and reign—when His elect, bride shall have been completed and glorified with Him. I like to remember the words of the Lord through the Prophet respecting that glorious epoch: "Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf be unstopped; then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing."

One Born Before the Time.

Many have remarked at the peculiarity of St. Paul's statement that he saw the Lord as one prematurely born. But, if at first the statement was dark and puzzling, now it is luminous and enlightening. His thought is this: The time for giving ocular demonstrations of the Lord's resurrection had gone by; the next manifestation of Him, was to be to His saints, and after that to the world. Thus we read: "We shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is."

Strictly speaking, then, the experiences of Saul of Tarsus were out of the ordinary. No one else than he, not even the saints, were to see the Lord before their resurrection change. In the end of this Age. When, therefore, he saw Jesus, he saw Him before the time—more than eighteen centuries before the time. Moreover, he saw Him as one born before the time—as one resurrected before the time.

LINK AND PIN Chicago & Northwestern. HARVARD-EVANSVILLE BLOCK SYSTEM BEGUN

Signal Engineer Carroll Here Today to Start Installation Southward Toward Harvard.

E. C. Carroll, signal engineer for the Northwestern, and his three assistants, were at the local yards this morning to superintend the work of installing the new block system which is to be put into operation between Harvard and Evansville. This new system will be a great addition to the equipment of the road and will enable the crowding of as many trains as the track will hold on the line at once as a train cannot enter a block before the one ahead leaves it, and thus every block on the road must have a train in it without danger.

These block signals are electrically operated by current generated in large earthenware jars similar in principle to the ordinary dry battery. Three earthenware jars of these battery units are called eighteen in all, were taken out of the local yards this morning and placed along the track south by the derrick, under the supervision of Mr. Carroll. These batteries are about seven feet tall and six feet in diameter, and are planted in the ground beneath the semaphores to protect them.

It is not known yet how long it will take to get the system in operation but it is expected that it will be in working order within a few weeks many of the signals having been installed between here and Evansville already. This will be another marked improvement in the Northwestern and will help to make the road much safer than it is at present.

E. T. Lawson and A. J. Clark are making a tour through Crystal Lake, Union, Clinton Jet, and other places inspecting the holders of the stationery signals and in some cases locomotives. They expect to be back in a few days.

A. Argyle has been assigned the turn around job running between Janesville and Belvidere. His former job is now open for applications.

Engine 333 was taken out of the local shops yesterday after a general overhauling and will probably be put on the South End way freight. Engines 139 and 67 are in for general overhauling.

A second 501 was sent out yesterday.

Engineer Enfield and Fireman Ashmoren took an extra out to Chicago this morning at eleven o'clock with engine No. 928.

Fireman L. D. Walters was in Cary yesterday on company business.

John Fish was off yesterday but returned to work this morning.

Edward Sullivan has acquired the painting habit from his brother William and spent the day today doubling red paint onto a shed in the yards. William, who has been at the job longer, was allowed to paint the office of the chief caller this morning and did such a clever job that several times during the day people came into the office and thought they were lost. He used black on the lower half of the walls so that it would not show when visitors wiped their feet over it. Will's artistic sense was hurt because he couldn't get the ceiling and upper walls a smoke color so it wouldn't show dirt, so he painted the ceiling a sky blue and said that no one could smoke anything but Bull Durham in there. Will got Rob to paint around the steam pipes as he said his hands were tender. Somebody said that they were going to paint up the roundhouse and then keep the engines and dirt out in the yard.

William Mac is still counting ties around the Belt Line.

Charles Houghton sent in his application yesterday for a job as beef killer in Armour's plant in Chicago. He discovered his talent yesterday when he accidentally hit Martin McElernatt over the head with a sledge hammer. He planted the hammer with such accuracy in the middle of the chief boiler-maker's forehead that he thinks of going into the business.

Geo. Reed and his crew made the journey to Watertown yesterday and put four detailed cars back on the track.

BIG CLAIMS MADE FOR HEADLIGHTS

New Oilburning Headlights Are Said to Be Great Advantage Over Old Style.

The Milwaukee road has only ten of the new lamp headlights at present, five of which have been put into service in Wisconsin, and the other five in Michigan. It being a hard matter to get deliveries from the factory is the only thing that delays the road supplying all of the engines on the line with this new and improved oil light that is superior to anything yet invented for locomotives.

Otto Tripple went out on 21 today as extra brakeman.

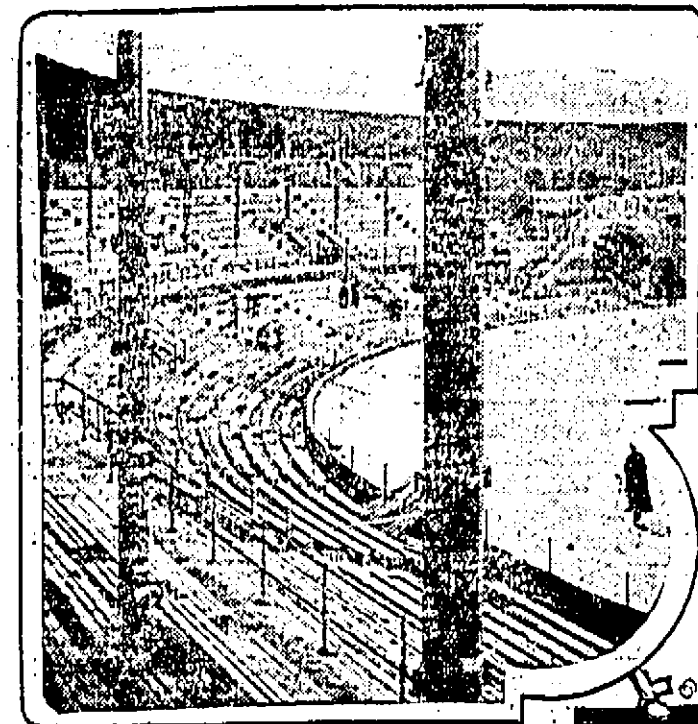

Most Primitive Race of People.

As a modern example of an absolutely primitive race of people Prof. W. Voiz of Breslau university, has brought to notice the Kubus, who are completely isolated in the forest interior of Sumatra. They share the life and habits of the apes living in the same forest. They do not seem to have advanced even to the hunting stage of development, and are not known to have any ideas of religion.

JUST AS GOOD.

Where Olympic games will be held.
Only a few short weeks now and the great International Olympic games, to be held this year at Stockholm, will be on in all their excitement. An immense stadium is being erected. This is now nearing completion. The above is the first picture to arrive in the United States showing a section of this immense grand stand.

FIFIELD GUEST OF CLUB AT MONROE

Charles L. Fifield of this City Principal Speaker at Organization Meeting of Monroe Twilight Club.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Monroe, Wis., April 25.—Judge C. L. Fifield, of Janesville, was the principal speaker at the organization meeting of the Monroe Twilight Club here last evening when 100 representative men of the city attended the initial banquet. Judge Fifield spoke on the work and accomplishments of the Janesville Twilight club and expounded on the possibilities that may come from a similar organization here.

E. M. McMahon, of Madison, and George E. Hoffman, of Seattle, Wash., were the other two out of town speakers.

The following permanent officers were elected at the close of the meeting: President, C. L. Fifield; vice president, E. C. Capshaw; secretary, treasurer, Robert L. Rote.

The next meeting will probably be held in May.

A Religion of Posture.

A religion of posture and imposture, of flexion and genuflexion, of bowing to the right and currying to the left, and an enormous amount of man machinery, these I imagine are somewhat wearying to our maker.—Sydney Smith.

Trunk Trays.

Trunks have improved along with everything else in this progressive age. The trunk with one tray is a rarity, and most trunks are made with five or six trays. There is such a demand for trays that they are sold separately, and can be added to any trunk whenever needed.

EVERY FARMER who is interested in up-to-date business-like farming ought in justice to himself attend this special

Plowing Demonstration

With a 25 H.P. Fairbanks-Morse Oil Tractor

April 30th and May 1st

on the A. G. Russell farm, one-half mile north of Barker's Corners
Don't miss it: it's interesting and mighty instructive.

THE traction engine has justified itself. The business-man farmer of today understands that he can cultivate his farm more profitably with a traction engine than without, just as a manufacturer uses power in his factory instead of using hand machines; the contractor knows he can haul his loads with a traction engine cheaper than with horses, and he, too, buys a traction engine. Highway commissioners can do more road grading for a given sum with a tractor than without, and they are buying tractors.

In purchasing a tractor one looks for the outfit that will yield the best returns for the purchase money invested. This special demonstration, which you should attend, is intended to show in concrete form, the facts about the Fairbanks-Morse 25 H. P. Tractor, needed by anyone in deciding whether or not it will be his best investment. It's not claimed that this machine is the best one in all cases, but this light, medium powered tractor, on a great many farms, is a better investment than any other.

TODAY'S EVANSVILLE NEWS

DEATH CLAIMS WIFE OF FORMER PASTOR

Mrs. M. C. Miner Died Quite Suddenly of a Railway Train Returning From a Religious Meeting.

Evansville, April 26.—Many of the people of Evansville and vicinity will be pained to learn that Mrs. M. C. Miner, wife of a former pastor of the Free Baptist church in this city, has passed away. Mrs. Miner had apparently been quite well, but died very suddenly on a railway train while returning from a religious meeting, with her husband, to their home at Gardner, Maine, and her death was a very great shock to her family. Mr. and Mrs. Miner were here for several years and did much to build up the Free Baptist society here, and it was also largely due to their efforts that the church building and parsonage were enlarged and improved. They have a large circle of warm friends in Evansville and vicinity.

Local News.
The Baptist Sunday school institute, which was held at the First Baptist church, Thursday afternoon and evening, was very well attended and the sessions were instructive and interesting.

OF EDGERTON CLUB

Congregational Men's Club Entertained at Home of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Schoenfeld.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Edgerton, April 26.—Last night at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Schoenfeld was held the meeting of the Men's Club of the Congregational Church, being the closing meeting of the year. The evening's subject was, "Should Our Emigration Laws be Restricted?"

Earl Whitford and Max Henderson handled the subject in the affirmative and negative respectively, and L. E. Gettle and Prof. Holt also took active parts in the discussion. Rev. Dr. Sheldon of Madison state superintendent of the Congregational churches was also present and addressed the meeting, giving an interesting speech. At the close refreshments were served.

Small lots will accumulate in a busy store like this, and from time to time it's a splendid policy to clear them out. Keep the stock perfect and advertise it well. We "cleared house"—picked here and there such specials as we thought would prove big loaders and now you may buy wall papers that are really choice, at prices that are usually asked for the cheapest sorts. They include papers that ordinarily sell for from 15c to 40c per roll, your choice now at 10c PER ROLL.

Hundreds come here for ideas and are welcome. You see we are always on the outlook for new things and new ideas in the treatment of wall papers.

Just now the store is brim full of new ideas in the treatment of wall papers; and you'll be well repaid for the time spent here.

TELLS OF MESSAGE FROM DEAD WRITER

Here is a chic frock suitable for serge, taffeta, linen, etc. The model is developed in deep blue mohair. The four core skirt shows a shaped seam in the front and in the back, defined by heavy stitching. It is decorated with blue and white bone ribbons. The inset section on the skirt, bodice and sleeves are of cream taffeta edged with blue folds of dark blue fallie silk. The curved band outlining the neck is of cream taffeta embroidered in blue and orange wool. A similar band finishes the sleeves.

WARSHIP TO FOLLOW ATWOOD IN FLIGHT

Harry N. Atwood.
Aviator Atwood, who has been accomplishing some remarkable feats in aviation, is to try to cross the Atlantic in a heavier than air machine. This will be the first serious attempt in such an attempt. The flight will take place sometime during May. The United States Navy is to detail some of its fastest war vessels to follow the flight and assist in case there is need.

CLUBS PLAYING POOR BALL, DECLARES LORD

Harry Lord.
"I haven't seen any good ball played this spring," says Harry Lord of the Chicago White Sox. "The weather has been all against any real stuff and the men have simply been trying to go through the motions of playing. The grounds have been bad and players that have gone for hits would be pitchers later on. Half the players are suffering with colds and when a man is in that condition he cannot do himself justice, either mentally or mechanically. I don't look for any big league baseball until the weather warms up and the players get into condition."

These are the days to get the cream of the stock and it is a wise time to make selections so that your carpets may be all ready to be delivered and laid when you are ready for them. The selection is much more satisfying if done before the hurry time begins.

BEET SUGAR MEN TO MAKE STRONG PROTEST

Will Fight Reduction of Sugar Tariff Rates Before Congress.

Washington, D. C., April 26.—An important phase of the hearings on the sugar bill, in which sugar men from many states have appeared to protest against the stamping out of that great industry, has been the evidence that the sugar trust is vitally interested in the efforts to pass the sugar bill, and the demonstration that to pass the bill would be to benefit the trust and injure the beet sugar men.

In other words, the hearing has demonstrated the absolute error of the thousands of westerners who have supposed that the sugar trust, as the refining interests are known, is friendly to the beet sugar men.

Following are some of the developments to date:

That the sugar trust's friends have so framed the free sugar bill as to admit such materials as boneblack, extensively used by the trust in refining, free, while the farmer who uses lamp black to paint a barn has to pay a big duty.

That the sugar trust formerly owned a large interest in many beet sugar plants, but when it began to plan the free sugar bill sold out practically all its own holdings in beet sugar factory stock.

That the free sugar bill was conceived and pushed when it was discovered last year that beet sugar was being sold in competition even in the eastern states, with the cane sugar.

That when the price of sugar went to about 8 cents last summer, it was because of the shortage of beet sugar, and that the moment the new crop of beet sugar came into the market the price of sugar dropped to normal.

That the beet sugar from California and the Pacific coast is now produced in such quantities as to be sold each year in mid-western states such as Minnesota and the Dakotas, Kansas, Illinois, Nebraska, etc., in competition with cane sugar.

That Michigan sugar for the first time holding its own with sugar from competition, was sold in the New York market when the sugar trust boycotted the price of its product to 8 cents, and for the first time the East felt the benefit of the home-made material.

That if sugar were admitted free it would wipe out this competition of beet sugar with the trust product, and would make it possible for the sugar trust, with the beet sugar factories closed, to hold the price of its product to 8 cents and not have the home competition to lower the price as was the case last year.

That the circulars sent out by the so-called Wholesale Grocers' association asking free sugar, and declaring that free sugar would hurt the trust, were in fact sent out by F. C. Lowry, an agent of the sugar trust.

That there is no Wholesale Grocers' association, and that the trust sent out this literature in an effort to deceive the people and make them think that beet and cane sugar interests were united against the free sugar bill.

That this sugar business has spent, as admitted before congressional hearings, $12,000 in trying to influence sentiment for the passage of the free sugar bill.

Most notable of all these striking phases of the investigation is the sale of the sugar trust stock in beet sugar companies. When it was found, however, that to dominate the beet sugar industry, by buying stock in the biggest beet sugar companies, and at one time owned a majority of the stock in some of the biggest beet sugar companies. Who all was found, however, that a beet sugar factory could be established easily by independent, and that the trust could never control the industry, the trust began selling out its beet sugar factory stock, and then began the agitation for free sugar, to demolish the independent interests it could not buy out.

Just So.

"It took me three weeks," said the traveling salesman, "to get an audience with the king. But it was worth the trouble. He conferred a decoration upon me." "Booked an order, did you?"—Washington Herald.

Think Only of the Blessings.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

THE LEGISLATIVE "WHIP."

By A. W. MACY.

It is a curious office, the "whip" in the lower house of congress holds. It is his duty to round up the members of his party and see that they are present to vote on important questions when they come up. Of course he is not solicitous to secure the presence of members of the opposition on such occasions. The idea of a party "whip" is borrowed from the English house of commons. For eight years, from 1850 to 1858, Sir William Hayter served as the liberal "whip" in the lower house of parliament, and his work was so efficient and so much appreciated by his party that three years afterward he was presented with a handsome testimonial. Another parliamentary "whip," Rt. Hon. William Paden, was made governor of Madras, doubtless as a reward for his "whip" services.

FAMOUS AMERICAN INDIANS

ALBERT PAYSON TERRILL

RAIN IN THE FACE.

A throng of Sioux braves and chiefs and medicine men were assembled in solemn conference to grant tribal honors to the young chieftain, Rain in the Face.

The young man—he was less than thirty—had already won fame in the barbarous Sun Dance. This "dance" was a ceremony for testing the courage of young men. Rain in the Face was hung from a high pole by means of skewers thrust through his shoulder muscles. He was supposed to hang there until muscles or skewers gave away. Meantime all the older men scanned him closely for signs of pain in his stolid face. Should he show in any way how terribly he was suffering he would henceforth be branded a coward. The skewers broke and Rain in the Face dropped to the ground. One disgruntled chief hinted that the skewers had not been strong enough for such a test. So, despite the remonstrances of the others, the half-dead Rain in the Face insisted on undergoing the fearful ordeal a second time. This bit of pluck stamped him henceforth as a man who scorned pain.

A Boast that Brought Trouble. Now came the final ceremony to determine his worth as a chief. A government scout who was trusted by the Indians had secured leave from the Sioux to be present at the conference. He happened to mention this fact to Col. Tom Custer, younger brother of the famous General Custer. Tom was wild to go along and to witness so strange a ceremony. The scout, according to his own story, agreed to take him on condition that young Custer would give his word not to reveal anything he might see and hear. Tom promised.

During the ceremony Rain in the Face was called upon to tell of any brave deeds he had performed. He rose in the circle and related a story of having met two white men in the mountains and of having made the peace sign to them. They had disregarded the sign and had fired upon him. Rain in the Face had escaped unhurt, had followed the men for two days, and had then killed and scalped them while they slept.

When Tom Custer heard this tale he declared that he would not let so dastardly a crime go unpunished. In spite of the scout's frenzied pleas Tom galloped to the nearest fort, told the story to his brother, General Custer, and came rushing back with a company of cavalry. Rain in the Face was seized by the soldiers, dragged to the fort and brought before General Custer. For a whole day he would make no reply to the general's questions. Then, all at once, he not only confessed the double killing, but boasted loudly of it and dared the whole government to punish him.

Rain in the Face was locked into a leaky, cold hut that was half full of snow, and was left there to the mercy of the bitter wintry weather until his case should come up for trial. He managed to get hold of a rifle. He cut loose his heavy iron fetters and broke out of the hut. Stealing a horse, he galloped to the mountains, and he sent back this message to the fort by the first man he met:

"Tall Tom Custer I will one day cut out his heart!"

The Fulfilling of a Strange Vow. This was in 1874. Rain in the Face at once joined Sitting Bull's band of horse thieves and murderers, and proceeded to make his name a terror throughout the border. When Custer's little army rode to destruction in the ambush at the Little Big Horn on June 25, 1876, Rain in the Face was one of the foremost Indian chiefs in that battle to the death. According to his own story, he over kept on the lookout for Col. Tom Custer. At length, amid the thinning ranks of cavalymen, he saw him. Dashing madly through the soldiers Rain in the Face reached Tom, shouted his own name and struck the colonel dead. Then, with a slash of his knife, he fulfilled the rest of his gruesome vow.

Two pistol bullets—one in the right thigh, the other in the left knee—cut short Rain in the Face's further share in the hand-to-hand carnage, though it has been rumored that he shot General Custer, at long range, after being thus crippled. The night over, some of the Indians made for Canada; Rain in the Face with them. He remained safely on British soil until 1881, and was the last of the Sioux chiefs to surrender to General Miles.

For the next 34 years he lived in outward peace, though always secretly plotting new uprisings. His domestic life was as stormy as his military career. He had seven wives in quick succession, and is more than suspected of having murdered at least one of them.

Rain in the Face died at Standing Rock Reservation, S. D., September 12, 1905, in his sixty-third year, still hating the government that fed him, still seeking vainly for a chance to return to the warpath.

Save $$$$ On Wire Fence!

We can save you money if you will buy either Page Fence or Lion Fence NOW.

Page fence is the Pioneer of Woven Wire Fences, having been on the market for a quarter of a century. It outlasts any other woven wire fence made, because of the tremendous strength of its High Carbon Basic Open Hearth Steel Wire. If you have Page Fence on your farm now, you know why it's the most economical fence. You know that it will support itself over a longer span than any other fence, and thus save many posts and much labor.

Lion Fence, King of Lock-Type Fences, is the strongest of its kind made. It can't sag. It is unaffected by temperature changes. It's lock holds it secure against hardest usage. It's the best "staple" fence on earth.

We have both these fences in all styles—Standard Stock Fence, Hog Fence, Sheep Fence, Poultry Fence, etc.

If you need fence now or expect to buy this season, call at once.

makes dish-washing easy

The use of a little Gold Dust in your dish-water will make your dishes whiter, sweeter and cleaner than they ever can be without it. Unlike soap, Gold Dust does more than clean the surface. It goes deep after germs and hidden food particles, and sterilizes everything it touches.

Gold Dust does all the hard part of the work without your assistance, because it begins to dissolve and clean the moment it touches the water.

When you have to wash dishes 1095 times a year, the Gold Dust method of saving half your time and half your labor means something.

Gold Dust is sold in 50 size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.

SIDEWALK KETCHES.

YOUTH.

By Howard L. Rann.

YOUTH is the first course in a meal which lasts longer and gives more pain than a lodge banquet. It is something which a man sheds along with his self-esteem and college yell. The peculiar thing about youth is that the person who has it tries to leave it behind as fast as possible, while those who have shaken it off try to coax it back with a short skirt and no sleeves of any consequence.

Youth may be said to start from the eventful day when a boy leads a safety razor up to a feeble imitation of a mustache, and usually ends when his face is lined with wrinkles which could not be smoothed out with a tailor's goose.

Youth takes every man's word at par and will sign a note with anybody whose collateral consists mainly of perfume bank. After this happens a few times, youth gains caution and doesn't sign anything that conceals any fine print except the marriage contract, and sometimes this hides a joker or two. Youth is usually quite full of play and animal spirits, most of which keeps father busy trying to catch up with the wild machine at the bank. There is nothing violent about youth except the clothes, which are like a snowflake on the river, one moment seen, then gone forever. Middle age has very little sympathy with youth, as a rule. Fond fathers who galloped through college on high gear, and never earned the price of a morning paper until they were 25, are sometimes disappointed because youth doesn't buckle in as soon as it is out of the High School and do a man's work for a boy's wage. The man who looks back on his boyhood without being able to remember anything but hard work and plenty of it, has misused something which he can never make up, no matter if he lives longer than Methuselah and all of his progeny. Give youth its fling. As it is, it is able to get out the heyday into the humdrum before you wish it had.

Modern Brains.

Klymer—"What is the secret of success in business? Selling the people what they want?" Munro—"No, not exactly; educating them to want the things you have to sell."

Flowers Dyed.

At a recent wedding in New York, says an exchange, the bridesmaids carried bunches of chrysanthemums which had been dyed exactly to match their gowns.

HEART AND HOME TALKS

BY BARBARA BOYD

Making the Home Comfortable for Summer

If you have never yet put your home into a summer dress, do it this summer. You'll be amazed how much more easily you'll go through the summer, how much less taxing the heat will be to it, and to some women it may seem an unnecessary expense. But the effort is more than repaid; and likewise, summer furnishings are more economical in the end than is exposing one's good carpets and rugs and upholsteries to the ravages of summer sun and dust.

The woman who has once put her home in summer dress needs no arguments to convince her of the wisdom of it. And the woman who has never yet done so doesn't know the pleasant experience in store for her.

Carpets and heavy rugs should be taken up and put away where moths will not feast on them. The floors can be stained and matted, or other summer rugs, laid about. These need not be expensive nor numerous, if the pocketbook will not permit. Such floors not only make the home at once appear much cooler, but they immediately make the housework much lighter. It is ever so much easier to wipe up these floors with a soft cloth over a broom than it is to sweep heavy carpet with the temperature at 90 degrees. And if cost alone is considered, the effect of the sun and the wear on the carpets during the summer is more than the expense of floor-stain and a few rugs.

Then, all heavy window draperies and portieres should come down. Most housekeepers take these down, even if they do little else. It is a wise thing to do. It saves the draperies, and it permits freer currents of air through the house.

A very important thing to do is to cover all upholstered furniture with summer cretonnes or linens. This is a step at which many housekeepers balk. They think it a lot of work and a lot of expense. But it pays. The effect upon the eye, and through the eye upon the nerves, of these cool, summery coverings, when the thermometer is making a record climb, is indescribable. And here again the saving to the expensive upholsteries is worth taking into account.

These are the principal things to do. But there are many little things that help. If much of the bric-a-brac is put away, it makes for summer comfort. Empty spaces are more soothing for the eye to rest upon in summer than a superfluity of ornaments. And the fewer things there are to handle and dust, the better for the housekeeper.

For the same reason, brass and copper pieces should be put away, and also as much of the cut glass and silver as can be spared.

White or summery covers for stands and tables are better than the darker ones of winter. All these little things count. In fact, wherever the eye rests should be cool, neutral tones and as much space as possible. Your home will give the effect of coolness, and, in addition, you will considerably lessen your housework. And this also makes for comfort in hot weather.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

"MENTAL suffering is just as bad as physical suffering." How few of us there are who have never uttered that brooding, and how very few who have never denied our realization of its meaning by our actions.

A young man of our neighborhood, the only son of a devoted mother, was called to a distant city a few months ago by his business. Now this young fellow is apparently rather nervous the measure of a man than the average, and there is no doubt that he loves his little mother. But he does not like to write letters, and again and again he fails to send the weekly letter which he has promised his mother. Sometimes it comes several days late; sometimes, not at all. Now I appeal to anyone who has ever waited for the letter that didn't come, to there any keener mental torture than such waiting? The alternations of hope and despair, the futile efforts not to expect it by this mail, and the sick disappointment when the postman passes by, proving that after all you did expect it, the innumerable misgivings as to what is the cause of the delay—all together, these things wear a person out as much as hard work or physical illness, and yet all this has the young man made his mother go through, again and again, in the few months which he has been absent from her. If he saw his mother in physical pain, I know he would be very much grieved, and as for himself causing her to suffer physical pain—well, he would be as much horrified at that thought as any other man who has a good mother and loves her. And yet, doubtless, he has sometimes said—even as you and I—"mental suffering is just as bad as physical suffering."

"Why didn't you telephone him when you found you would have to be so late?" inquires the anxious wife who has spent her evening conjuring up all sorts of terrible things which could have happened to keep her husband from coming home or telephoning.

"Why, I meant to," he explains, "and I put a call in, but the operator didn't get you, and we were on busy that I entirely forgot."

Would he consider "I forgot" a sufficient excuse for causing his wife some terrible physical pain, I wonder?

Nobody likes to see suffering. Doubtless, part of the reason that we are so indifferent and hard-hearted in regard to the mental suffering that we inflict, is that we do not often actually witness it.

But that is an explanation, not an excuse. Anyone who really loves those whom he professes to love will try to live by, as well as believe, that brooding—"Mental suffering is just as bad as physical suffering."

A Housewife's Estimates of Cost-Tasty Meals for Spring Appetites.

chops, craves odd tasty dishes at this season. Curry of tripe fills the need. It is agreeable. Cut two small onions into small pieces and put into a sauce pan with three level table-spoons of butter; cook until brown then add a level tablespoon of curry and stir until smooth. Add one cup of milk and one pound of honeycomb tripe cut in small strips.

Cover and cook slowly one hour or until tender. Pour into the center of a border of boiled rice.

Veal masquerades as chicken more often than dreamed of by those who eat chicken and croquettes. To make veal croquettes make a white sauce and season with salt and white pepper. Cornstarch will make a thicker sauce than flour and this is needed in making croquettes.

Add two cups of finely chopped or ground cooked veal to the sauce and when mixed spread on a plate to cool.

When ready to fry form little cones, balls or rolls in flour, beaten cracker crumbs then in an egg beaten with a tablespoon of cold water, then in crumbs again and fry in deep fat. Serve with a cream sauce with peas or with a tomato sauce.

An Irish Stew should be rather dry or the liquid should nearly all be absorbed by the vegetables. Cut two and one-half pounds of mutton into small pieces; slice eight medium sized potatoes and two onions and cut enough turnips into cubes to fill a cup.

Put meat and vegetables into the kettle in alternate layers sprinkling over a little salt and pepper on each layer. Pour in two cups of boiling water, cover and cook slowly until the meat is tender. Serve hot. If cooked in the fireless cooker use half a cup less of water.

A chowder without fish was given recently and here is a rule for fish balls minus the usual cod. Cook half a dozen medium sized potatoes in boiling water salted well, drain, mash very fine and beat in one-quarter cup of butter, adding a little paprika, three gratings across a nutmeg and a tablespoon of onion juice. Stir in the yolks of two eggs well beaten and one-third cup of cracker crumbs. Beat well and form into small balls then roll in flour and fry in a basket in deep fat.

A lemon syrup to be made when lemons are cheap can be used with cold water to make an excellent lemonade in a hurry. Grate the yellow rind from six lemons with two cups of sugar. Pour on all the boiling water that the sugar will absorb then cook until a clear syrup is formed. Add the juice of a dozen lemons and stir well then take from the fire before the syrup boils up again. Bottle or seal in small fruit jars.

DANGER IN SELF DOCTORING

"Self doctoring with operation or drugs," says a contributor to "Life and Health," is often self-murder. There is an old proverb, that at forty every man is either a physician or a fool. Everybody needs to know some law to avoid serious mistakes, and efficiency no one can afford and the same is true of the laws of health, especially diet, but in a case of serious illness or in an effort to attain the best health and efficiency no one can afford to be without the benefit of the advice of a physician. The modern ideal of the medical profession is preventive medicine, in accordance with the proverb that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and the best service of the physician can be given in advice on the maintenance of health, which is the aim of these hints.

Every Housewife Should Have a Copy

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

The Cook's Book has been prepared at a cost of many thousands of dollars, in the interest of better and healthier cooking. It shows the way to reduce the cost of living, containing as it does over 90 thoroughly tested, tried and proven recipes that will be successful every time, if the few simple directions are followed.

This is truly a wonderful book, showing as it does in hundreds of ways how to lighten the good housewife's burdens and solving her day problems successfully. It really must be seen to be appreciated, for the recipes are illustrated in natural colors. Those who have seen it, immediately say: "It's the best Cook Book I've ever seen"—and you will too.

You can secure a copy of this valuable book absolutely free by attaching the colored certificate packed in 25-cent cans of KC Baking Powder to this advertisement, sending both to the Janesville, Wis., Co., Chicago, Ill. Write your name and address plainly.

Heart and Home Problems

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS... Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Can you give a good polish for white shoes? (2) What will cure pimples and blackheads? (3) Can you give a good recipe for cold cream? (4) Will changeable silk dresses be worn this summer?

INQUISITIVE. (1) A different preparation is used for each: suede, kid and canvas shoes. For white suede or buckskin the preparation comes in the form of a cake and is applied with a sponge and water, and then the shoes are brushed; for white kid or canvas there are liquid preparations. You can probably obtain any of these from your shoe dealer. (2) Impure blood is usually the cause of pimples and blackheads. The best treatment is to do all you can for your general health by diet, fresh air, exercise in bathing. (3) A good cold cream recipe is the following: One-half ounce spermaceti, one ounce white wax, four ounces of almond oil, two ounces of lanoline, two ounces of coconut oil, one ounce tincture of benzoin and two fluid drams of rosewater. It is best to make this in a small double boiler, or in a bowl in a pan of water. Melt the spermaceti and wax, and put in the oils and lanoline, then remove from fire and turn in the benzoin and rose water, he harder you can beat it the better and when of good consistency put in jars. One-half formula makes as much as one person would care to use. (4) Changeable silk will be in as good style for dresses this summer as any colored silk in warm weather.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I asked you the other day how to make a rose jar and you replied to take one-half peck rose petals and to use one handful of salt to three of petals. I did this and it makes a brine in the bottom of the jar, and the petals are very wet. How shall I dry them, or have I started wrong?

CONSTANT READER. You have probably used too much salt. It would be well to sprinkle the petals on a paper and partially dry them in the sun before drying them with the salt. Use a teaspoon of salt to a quart of rose petals.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I wish to take lessons in china painting, but have no special talent for painting. What would you advise me to do?

DOLE. If you are artistic in color, and painstaking in your work, there is no reason why you should not learn to paint china very nicely. One need not be an artist for this. Accuracy and neatness combined with artistic blending and shading of color may accomplish wonderful results on china. Take lessons of the best teacher you can and learn to paint right from the beginning.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am greatly annoyed by my neighbor's children, a little girl and a little boy who run over to our yard the minute they see my little girl out playing. They are not children I wish to have her play with and I have to keep her indoors more than is well for her. What would you advise me to do?

TROUBLED MOTHER. As soon as the neighbor's children go home after you have called your little girl into the house, let her go out to play again, and if the parents are not observant enough to see your purpose, tell the children, and the mother if necessary, that you wish to have your little girl play alone part of each day, this way you may accomplish results without giving offense. It may even be necessary for you to allow your little girl to play with them for a short time once in

HAVE YOU THE RIGHT TO BE MARRIED?

ST. DOROTHY, CALD

Dear Summer, Chicago: "The marriage license must be accompanied with a certificate of good health for all marriages solemnized hereafter in this church."

Good. But how about a codicil promising that good health should make for cherry tactfulness?

A common recipe for living happily is to overlook things. That's like throwing a copper to get rid of beggary. It's looking under, not looking over, that finds the reason for the cross word or grudge or seeming discourtesy and diverts a storm by kindness.

That is tact. Someone asked a devoted husband if his wife was pretty. He looked puzzled.

"I don't know about that," he said, "but she certainly has a way with her." Julia Marlowe put it differently. Asked what was the greatest boon nature could give, beauty or ability, she promptly said, "A handful of charms."

Isn't it so? Tact is the something anybody can afford and nobody can afford to go without.

Business isn't a day dream. Clerks make mistakes. Customers fuss. Everybody's hard to deal with. Neither is housekeeping a fairly tale of silver gowns and world-banishing wands.

When a woman is bell boy, janitor, stenographer, nurse, mother, assistant general manager, and entertainer committed all rolled into one or even half of that there's plenty of chance for things to go wrong. Then it's that little avancement, something alone that can smooth out the wrinkles.

It's tact that makes a man take a look at his wife's tired, fretful face and say, "Darrest, let's elope. Let's go down town to the little table where every darned watter in the place used to cluster when we wanted to hold hands. Let dinner go to the devil."

It's tact that causes a woman to see behind a man's strained frowning look a dull headache or pain to "please" make a great big fuss over me" instead of a grouch. For anyone who thinks it's only women who are meant by the popular song, "I want a little hugger sometime," is sadly mistaken.

And tact can cure the meanest of small home tragedies.

"It worked, it worked!" called a young woman joyfully as she bounded into an older sister's room. She had come in tears the day before because her husband had taken a fancy to a flashy loud-talking couple and especially for the company of the jolly, slangy, neighbor wife.

SAME AS USUAL

"How did that rich Mormon who died leave his money?"

"He left it to the widows and orphans."

A WARNING.

Said Ann, "This year is mine; I'll bring my husband's soul to book."

Said John, "If you would marry that, then leap before you look."

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, April 25, 1872.—The initiative meeting of the representatives and friends of the national prohibition party was held in Washington last evening. An address was delivered by Hon. James Black of Pennsylvania, the candidate of the party for President of the United States.

In the Dominion parliament last night, Delorge inquired whether it was the intention of the government to take measures to place on a more satisfactory footing the commercial relations between the United States and Canada. Sir Francis Balfour said it was the intention of the government to take new measures for doing so.

Spotted Eagle, a noted chief of the Santa Area, has informed Gen. Stanley commanding at Fort Sully, Dakota, that his tribe has not consented to the running of the line of the Northern Pacific railway through the territory, and that he will inaugurate hostilities as soon as the work is commenced.

The LaCrosse Democrat reports that if the rains do not come soon the mills will be compelled to shut on account of a lack of logs.

The LaCrosse division of the Milwaukee & St. Paul has made the route of the freight for St. Paul instead of by way of Prairie du Chien.

Lapping bulk will be tonight, the scene of a temperance gathering called by the legislature. A number of good speakers will be present and the proceeding will be enlivened by pleasant music. The entertainment will be free and all classes are expected to participate in this joyous occasion.

Market Quotations—Butter, good to choice at 15c to 18c. Potatoes—Fair supply at 75c to 80c. Onions—Extra 9c to 10c dozen.

A week's wedding took fire in the rear of a small wooden house on West Milwaukee street this forenoon and the whole batch was consumed. For a time the building was in danger of falling prey to the flames but some men in the vicinity went to the rescue and extinguished the blaze.

I'm truly sorry for the gent who, when the telephone ring is heard, won't by his flustered finger who can't properly sit and read "Rebellion," "Money Moon" or "Queen" or "The Restless" humbugger. The flustered pleasure he will do; he says: "I have to go to the RESTLESS lodge as outside guard, dear Sallie, tomorrow night I have to go to act as usher at a show, next night I 'tend a rally." His patient wife just heaves a sigh and when the briny from her eye, and sad and discontented, she murmurs now and then: "I wish that husbands and that kind of fish had never been invented! I need to let my fingers roam, and pictured such a happy home, with evenings long and cheery; alas! my husband's brain turns sour if he must stay here half an hour—it surely makes me weary." For pleasant evenings by your side perhaps the girl you made your bride is yearning, too, and pining? Disgusted with her moaned Grange it will not seem so passing strange if she goes gallivanting. Methinks that many of the dames who play the frantic suffrage games are there by husbands driven, who, when they toddle home at all, go much like Dobbin to his stall, to eat the grub that's given.

Shows World's Advancement. Methodist ministers in the United States are today preaching in more languages, it is said, than were used after the miracle of Pentecost.

The DIAMOND CIPHER

A Baseball Romance

By W. A. PHELON

"Good idea," assented Solano, "except in emergency cases. Suppose a large, thick revolutionist, of the bone-head variety, asks you to give a quick account of yourself, and has a rifle pointed at you while he is asking? And suppose, also, that he gives you, in Spanish, a three limit of two minutes to make good? Are you going to resurrect the book, begin with the sentence, 'The dog of my uncle has bitten the left leg of the cow belonging to my father,' and go down the pages till you find the proper sentence for the exigency?"

Brockett chuckled, to the intense annoyance of an elderly lady across the aisle, and seized the book. He immersed himself in its pages till ten o'clock, when it was time for the first watch to begin—a duty which had fallen to Brockett by the flipping of a penny. Closing the book, he leaned back against the plush, resolved to keep his eyes open and give Solano a fair chance for his three-hour nap—and discovered, as he gazed on his companion, that the Cuban had stolen an indefinite space of time upon him and was already sound asleep.

Nothing happened to disturb the travelers through the night, but the alternation of three-hour periods left them in a more or less drowsy, half-dazed condition when morning came. The train was bowling along through the half-cultivated, half-cultivated fields of Arkansas; Solano was nodding in his seat, and Brockett was trying to absorb some more of the Anglo-Span-

Can't keep the country. This is the case for both of you.

CHAPTER XXII.

"Yes, young fellows," the sheriff continued, "you stand accused of getting some mighty valuable documents from the German gentleman. He'll be down by the next train to identify you, and, in the meanwhile, I'd just better take charge of any papers or letters you two may be carrying. Of course, I ain't sayin' he's right and you're wrong. That's to be shown at the hearing before the proper authorities. Anyway, I'll see if you are tellin' anything like what he claims was taken from him."

The sheriff thrust an inquisitive hand into the front of Brockett's shirt, and at the same identical moment that section of the car seemed filled with life, animation and agitated doings. Brockett, as the sheriff bent forward, drove his knee savagely upward, and the sheriff, with a yell of anguish and surprise, fell back, doubling up and going to the floor. His falling body completely blocked the aisle so far as his deputies were concerned, and there was really no reason why Solano should reach across the intervening space to smile one of the worthy Arkansas to the nose. He did, however, and the deputy, falling upon his chief, made the progress of the constabulary doubly difficult. Before they could get the tangle cleared, both boys were out of the car, and were dashing up a little runway which slopes downward to the Little Rock station. They were two good city blockers away and not losing any ground when the frantic sheriff and his men tumbled from the car, and a few minutes later they vanished into a jungle network of vines and shrubbery beside the river.

The sheriff sighted the disappearing figures and trained a long blue revolver on the fast-receding Brockett. He might not have hit his target at that distance and he might only have fired in the air to frighten the quarry into surrender. However this might be, he never delivered the bullet. A small, stocky boy, intensely Irish of general feature, stumbled against the frantic sheriff at this juncture, and for the second time in two minutes the valorous official sought the sod. Rising, he aimed a well-meant kick at the youngsters, who were perhaps ten feet away as the boot whizzed and then, realizing that the mishap was purely accidental, paid no further attention to the newest disturber.

"Git after 'em!" he bellowed. "Hurry along there! What are ye all, anyhow? Lookworm cases? Git a move on!" And the deputies plunged pantingly in the mad pursuit of two active young men who had a start of at least a thousand feet and every incentive to exert themselves to the utmost.

Brockett and Solano, their journey once more interrupted, lost no time in lamentations or vain objections. The circumstances were hardly suitable. They struck out through the Arkansas hills, making remarkably good time, and doing all their complaining inwardly. Baron Zollern and the epithets most appropriate to that noble German could wait, but the sheriff of Little Rock was hardly likely to do much waiting. After hustling along through the underbrush for perhaps twenty minutes, the sounds of pursuit died away to a far-off murmur, and the fugitives took breathing space, though still pushing doggedly ahead.

Clear of Little Rock's outskirts, the boys made sharp detours around several farm houses, and even dodged sundry negro cabins. Coming up to a white, rather attractive house a little farther on, they were about to skulk by under cover of a hedge, when Solano suddenly halted.

"We need something—at least, I think we'll need it awfully soon," exclaimed the Cuban, "and I think we can get it at this house. Come right along—no time to lose, but this is something we've really got to have."

A pleasant-faced old lady answered Solano's knock, and the Cuban, with the utmost politeness, apologized for the intrusion. "We would not have disturbed you," he continued, "but for the fact that we are quite a ways from a store, and we really must have some pepper. Could you favor us with a little pepper—red, if possible? We are camping out on the river-bank, and pepper is one of the things you simply can't do without when you are cooking in the woods."

The old lady, beaming upon the good-looking, gentlemanly youngsters, hastened to present them with a liberal quantity of fiery cayenne, and then urged them to sit down and rest awhile. With polite excuses Solano explained the necessity of a quick return to the imaginary camp, and they trotted off, Solano exultant, Brockett deeply mystified.

"What on earth is the pepper for, Ramon?" he demanded.

"Dogs," replied Solano. "If I know anything about these people they'll have hounds on our track at any moment. Long ago, when Cuban slaves hid in the canebrake, they used to stop the hounds with a little pepper, used at the right time and place, and the stories I had heard came back to me."

And even as the Cuban spoke the howl of a hound came down the wind—then another, and then the chorus

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence.

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as the endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview on the subject a prominent local druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, cures urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address: Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists—50c, and $1.00.

OR A PRECT

The events of the next few hours seemed like some sort of a weird, wildly mingled dream. Brockett and Solano found a stretch of rocky ground near the river bank, and ran briskly on this for several minutes. Then, descending to the water's edge, they skirted the river a little ways, while the noise of the pack grew momentarily nearer and stronger. They came to a little creek, running at right angles to the river, and crossed it, wading knee-deep in the brown water. Then they struck off into the woods. At the very edge of the jungle was a big boulder, a relic of some glacial slide of centuries ago. They climbed this rock, and took a long jump from its summit, after carefully spreading pepper all over the flat top of the stone. The deep footprints, made as they landed from their leap were sprinkled with cayenne. Cayenne covered their tracks into the woods for the next half mile, and when they leaped a slender stream they peeped the spoor on each side of the water. Then they raced on, tired almost to the dropping point, staggering, stumbling now and then, but keeping their nerve and spirit undiminished. At last a railroad cut appeared before them. They crossed it, climbed the bank on the farther side and burrowed in a tangle of long, dry grass and weeds. There they lay, gasping and puffing, while their lungs seemed bursting through their ribs. And from the dim distance, borne upon the breeze, came faintly the howls of hounds in bitter agony, and the shouts of baffled men in fruitless rage.

The Fairy Touch.

There are people who have the fairy touch. In the intimate human associations, held together by kindred blood or by kindred ideals, these folk of the fairy transmutation serve the same invaluable purpose which genius does to the world at large; they open the hearts of men and bring them close. The little circles where we relax and commune, where we recurrently meet a few persons and pleasures, are met at times by sorrow, owe much of their unity and flavor to people often of indifferent accomplishment—but of the fairy touch. Indeed, they are not only like genius, they have genius. The difference between them and the men of more durable achievement is but a difference of strength and of concentration. Surely they understand; and the gift of expression is theirs, though it be but feeling, fragile, shadowy.—Clarence Stone, in the Atlantic.

Preparations for Shocks.

For most of the wrenches and jolts of life there are, happily, conditions which alleviate what would otherwise seem unbearable conditions which often and break the most cruel shocks. Death, for instance, the greatest shock of all, unless it is very sudden, seldom comes as an unbearable wrench, because weakness or suffering has prepared us for it.

All Run-Down and Generally Miserable

New Tonic Tona Vita in Use At Health Resorts For This Trouble.

If you are nervous and run-down with little vitality or ambition, and feel generally miserable and half-sick, you are suffering from nervous debility. If so you should investigate the new tonic "Tona Vita" and find out what a great record it has made since first introduced scarcely a year ago.

Do you know that "Tona Vita" is now pronounced by hundreds of physicians as the most remarkable tonic known. Do you know that "Tona Vita" is used in high-class sanitariums and health resorts as a nerve food and health tonic? Do you know that during the past year more than fifty thousand people have stated over their own signatures that "Tona Vita" has completely restored their health.

Mr. James L. Hickey, of 289 North Division Street, Buffalo, N. Y., the well known National League Under, is one of those. This is what he says: "The nature of my profession frequently necessitated irregularity in sleeping and eating and as a result I became a victim of nervous debility. I had had headaches and indigestion. My nerves troubled me all day and I did not get sufficient rest from my sleep. I would become fatigued very easily, and was almost prostrated by hot weather."

"I had tried other means to restore my normal condition when a friend suggested the tonic 'Tona Vita.' I took his advice and am glad of it. My appetite improved at once. My headaches became less frequent and have gradually disappeared and I am no longer nervous or depressed. My stomach is now in perfect condition. In fact, I am thoroughly rejuvenated."

We have an agent in every city who will refund the purchase price if "Tona Vita" fails to completely build you up.

Smith Drug Co. has the agency for Tona Vita in Jamestown. The Approved Formula Company, Dayton, Ohio.

Not for the Grouch.
"My imagination is as keen as the next man's," said the Grouch, this morning, "but I don't believe I ever saw the time it was powerful enough to make a row of X's in a letter stand for exclamation."

Not a Flattering Opinion.
"Hobbs—Does young Dr. Squilla know much about medicine?" Hobbs—"Well, I should say that what he doesn't know about medicine would fill a morgue."

FOR FALLING HAIR

You Cannot Lose When You Use This Remedy.

We promise you if your hair is falling out, and you have not let it go too far, you can prevent baldness and get a new growth of hair, if you will use Rosall Hair Tonic, with persistency and regularity, for a reasonable length of time.

It is a scientific, cleansing antiseptic, germicidal preparation. It destroys microbes, stimulates good circulation around the hair roots, and thus promotes hair nourishment, removes dandruff and restores hair health. It is as pleasant to use as pure water, and is delicately perfumed. It is a real toilet necessity.

We want you to try Rosall "33" Hair Tonic with our promise that it will cost you nothing unless you are perfectly satisfied with its use. It comes in two sizes; prices 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rosall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rosall Store, The Smith Drug Co., 14 West Milwaukee St., Jamestown, Wis.

Finds Cure for Epilepsy After Years of Suffering

"My daughter was afflicted with epileptic fits for three years, the attacks coming every few weeks. We employed several doctors but they did her no good. About a year ago we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it certainly has proved a blessing to our little girl. She is now apparently cured and is enjoying the best of health. It is over a year since she has had a fit. We cannot speak too highly of Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. FRANK ANDERSON, Cambridge, Mass.

Thousands of children in the United States who are suffering from attacks of epilepsy are a burden and sorrow to their parents, who would give anything to restore health to the sufferers.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

is one of the best remedies known for this affliction. It has proven beneficial in thousands of cases and those who have used it have the greatest faith in it. It is not a "cure-all," but a reliable remedy for nervous diseases. You need not hesitate to give it a trial. Sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned.

JANESVILLE MEN WERE MEMBERS OF CLASS

M. R. Osburn, George S. Parker and Richard J. Hart Take the Scottish Rite Degree.

Three Janesville members of the Masonic order, M. R. Osburn, George S. Parker and Richard J. Hart were members of the spring class which took the degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite for the northern Masonic jurisdiction in Milwaukee this past week, which closed with a banquet at the Public Service building in that city last evening. Luther L. Cauley, Milwaukee, commander-in-chief, presided.

A five-minute silent prayer was taken for departed brethren who lost their lives on the steamship Titanic, and Dr. Daniel McL. Miller, Oconomowoc, a thirty-third degree Mason, who died in his home yesterday.

The spring class numbered seventy-seven, of whom twenty-one were from Milwaukee. The banquet was attended by about 600. Alfred L. Klingelhoefer, Milwaukee, was the class orator.

The Rev. John Lloyd, Waukegan, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of that city, spoke on "Masonry's Contribution to Religion and Fraternity."

Most Worshipful Grand Master Alexander E. Matheson, Janesville, and W. W. Perry, Milwaukee, grand secretary, also spoke.

The members of the class were: Herbert J. Anderson, Hudson; William J. Chumley, Mineral Point; Herbert B. Crummett, Amory; William H. Flannery, Clintonville; George O. Kellogg, Elkhorn; Charles L. Peterson, Oconomowoc; William E. Pfoeger, Manitowish; Robert L. Bailey, Black River Falls; Louis H. Schmidt, West Allis; Gustav K. Scholfield, Greenwood; William S. Washburn, Sturgeon Bay; Moses J. ## THE THEATERS

MUTT and JEFF.

When Bud Fisher conceived his world famous cartoon pictures "Mutt and Jeff" he undoubtedly had in mind the possibility of their advent on the stage some day. This dream has been realized for at Myers Theatre Saturday April 27, matinee and evening the noted pair of comics will cavort, make merry and romp through a play bearing the title of "Mutt and Jeff." It is a modest comedy in three acts and three scenes and from all accounts is the best vehicle of its kind offered to a critical public in many seasons. When the author went to work on the piece he had his task set out for him because of the improbability of the management securing the requisite type of actors to impersonate "Mutt" and "Jeff," who differ markedly from ordinary humans in facial expression and features, however. Gus Hill, who is sponsor for the production and who undoubtedly knows the theatrical business from A to Z, over came the difficulty. He has engaged a fine company and has spared nothing to make the comedy one to be remembered and accepted by a blasé theatre going public.

Fourteen jingling, jangling and catchy song hits are introduced during the action of the piece, which fairly bristles with unique features, surprises and side-splitting situations. The scenic investiture is massive and complete and the fun is kept at a rapid-fire pace throughout. Pretty and talented women dominate the chorus. Each young lady has been selected for her particular ability with the result that they collectively are an important adjunct to the success of the performance. Matinee will be given on Saturday at 2:30.

The Macks.
Hypnotism is still one of the world's scientific wonders. Students of the science declare that The Macks who appear next week at the Myers theatre are the finest demonstrators of the art in the United States today. They carry eight people with them, bill their performances like a circus, perform startling and wonderful acts and are the largest combination of their kind in the country. They not only attempt but also are said to do the apparently impossible features they advertise and aside from being a scientific demonstration are also an amusement feature that is unequalled. They will be at the Myers theatre all the coming week.

MOCK TRIAL WAS GIVEN BY PHLOTTAXIAN GIRLS.

Interesting Program Given by High School Literary Society Yesterday Afternoon.

At the meeting of the PhloTTaxian society at the high school yesterday afternoon an interesting mock trial was staged following the reading of the last chapter of the serial story by Bernard Austin. The plaintiff in the trial was Lucius Jones with Frances Brown as the defendant. Witnesses were introduced by the plaintiff's attorney, Emily Moser and were cross-examined by the defendant's counsel, Agnes McLeay. Elsie Davis as judge presided over the court with dignity and the counsel made elaborate pleas to the jury composed of members of the society which returned a verdict of not guilty.

Laureans in Burlesque.
Members of the Laurent Literary society enjoyed a novel program at their regular weekly meeting at the high school yesterday afternoon. Cartoons of faculty members were presented by the junior members of the society and the peculiarities in dress, speech and action of the various instructors were cleverly portrayed.

The KITCHEN CABINET

One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning.

—Charles Kingsley.

IS IT FOOD OR DRUGS?

Housekeepers are beginning to realize that cheating the grocer and the butcher increases the drugstore bill. Many of the illnesses of the body are caused from improper feeding. Much of ill health may be fed out of the system by the use of well selected and prepared food.

It is not necessary to spend a great deal of the income on food, for cheap foods that are perfectly good and wholesome can be bought if the markets are watched. It is not necessary to dose the little people with drugs when they are troubled with constipation, for there are so many good fruits like figs, prunes, apples and oranges; but these are staples which must be of first quality.

When we buy cheap food it need not be poor food. The woman who pays twenty and twenty-five cents for a package of breakfast food which could be bought for two or three cents is not a good manager. Whole wheat right from the farm may be bought for two or three cents a pound, and there is as much of good wholesome food in it as in a bought package. If it is well cooked and served in a dainty manner. Of course the cooking takes time and fuel, but it may be done in a fireless cooker or at a time when the fire is kept up for a long time for other things.

There are some women, we hope not many, who have so much leisure that they get little exercise, and in consequence are always ailing and taking drugs for some fancied illness. If tonics were thrown out of the window and that same window left open for the pure sweet air to purify the room at night, health would stay. A woman with a hobby, something to take her out of doors, will not need a tonic to keep her well.

Bees and birds, chickens, and if one can work a garden, are all fine outdoor medicines. There will always be enough demand for the family doctor, and we wouldn't do without him, but we need to keep our bodies in condition with less of drugs to disorder the functions.

Nellie Maxwell.

The Beatitudes. Matt. vii-12. Golden Text—Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Matt. vii-8.

(1.) Verse 1—Should ministers aim to get big crowds for their congregations? Give your reasons.

(2.) Did Jesus in this instance get away from the multitude in order to teach his disciples alone? Give your reasons.

(3.) Which does the more effective work, one who teaches and sits a few men to influence hundreds of thousands, or one who preaches to a crowd direct? Why?

(4.) Verses 2-3—Which are more blessed—great, rich and good men or the little known, poor and good men, and why?

(5.) What is it to be poor in spirit?

(6.) Is it possible for a rich man to be poor in spirit, and if so how?

(7.) What is "the kingdom of heaven" as Jesus here meant?

(8.) Verse 4—What is it to be "blessed"?

(9.) Does blessedness necessarily include happiness? Why or why not?

(10.) What effect does sorrow always have upon "the poor in spirit"?

(11.) Does Jesus mean that to mourn is in itself blessed or because it is the only way to reach the highest joy?

(12.) Verse 6—What is a "meek" man after the meaning of Jesus? (See I's. xxxviii:11.)

(13.) Dividing men in two classes—the meek and the proud—which class would you say gets the best things in this life?

(14.) Verse 8—What is the literal meaning of hungering and thirsting after righteousness?

(15.) Does Jesus mean that if we seek with sufficient intensity we may reach an experience in which we please God all the time, and, if not, what does he mean? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(16.) Verse 7—Why cannot a man receive the mercy of God if he is cruel either in act or speech to man or beast?

(17.) Verse 8—What is it to be pure in heart?

(18.) Why is it that so few persons are as conscious of the presence of God as if they saw him with the outward eyes?

(19.) Verse 9—Why is not a quarrelsome man, or one who fans the flame of dissension, a child of God?

(20.) Verses 10-12—Are true Christians persecuted in these days as they were in those days, and, if so, why is it?

(21.) Ought we to be sad or glad when we are persecuted for righteousness' sake?

(22.) What form does persecution of earnest Christians take in these days. Lesson for Sunday, May 5, 1912. Poverty and riches. Luke vi:20-26; xvi:13-31.

PRESS COMMENT.

Joy Riding At Sea. Evening Wisconsin: "Joy riding" is bad by sea as well as by land. Who would have supposed that the look-out on the largest passenger ship in the world would be without a night-glass that might have been purchased for a paltry $50.00? Admiral Dewey, brave old salt that he is, must have noticed some of the shortcomings in the equipment of Atlantic liners. His own experience among leeches long ago convinced him that every passenger vessel should carry a full supply of life-saving appliances. He sums up his convictions thus: "I think every passenger who crosses the North Atlantic Ocean takes his life in his hands every time. For myself, I would rather go around the world in a well-equipped man-of-war than make a trip across the North Atlantic in a transatlantic vessel. There will be more precautions hereafter. There will need to be, to win back the public's confidence. Nothing ever happened like this. I don't think the 'See America first' movement than the circumstances attending the loss of the Titanic."

For A Wonder. Green Bay Gazette: Closely following the announcement of the large number that were drowned in the wreck of the Titanic and the loss of 200 persons in the Mississippi flood comes the news of 35 being killed in a tornado. Fortunately the railroads have been operating their trains of late without any accidents.

Probably The Case. Some citizens have already found out that the commission means business and they wonder if they have not been misinformed about certain matters. —Janesville Gazette.

And some of your citizens you may find, will mean to make it their business to keep others misinformed about certain matters. —Edu. Claes Leader.

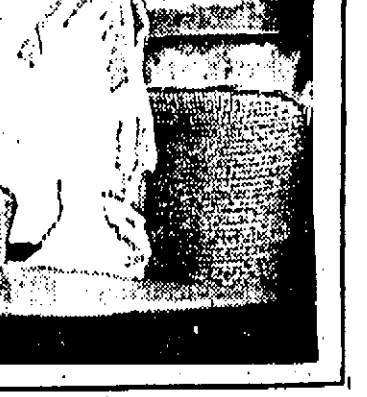

Their Service. Milwaukee Journal: The New York Evening Post says that the Socialists have given Milwaukee a splendid service by driving the people in to nonpartisanism earlier than they otherwise would have espoused it. Like the floss on David Harum's dog, the Socialists have not lived in vain.

WANT FISHER TO ACT AS A GRAND MARSHAL

Will be Asked to Take Charge of Policing the Race Course for Vanderbilt Cup Near Milwaukee.

This morning's Milwaukee papers announce that efforts are being made to induce Grant U. Fisher of this city to take charge of the policing of the course for the Grand Prix and Vanderbilt Cup races which are to be held near Milwaukee this year. The Milwaukee promoters of the event, it is said, would like to place the entire management of the policing of the track in the hands of Mr. Fisher owing to his experience as marshal at the various state fairs for the past eight years. Mr. Fisher stated this morning that he had not been approached on the matter as yet, and did not know whether he would accept it or not. Bart J. Riddle, who had charge of the concessions in Janesville during the Spanish War Veterans' reunion last year, is in charge of the affair. Mr. Riddle states that the races will cost $50,000 and that the money has already been subscribed for this. The route will be determined later and the county and state highway workers will combine to make the roads in the best shape possible.

Women Not Patrons at Bar. They tried an experiment at a new hotel in New York which failed so utterly as to prove at least to the manager of the hotel that women do not care to drink alone or with other women. Tea excepted, of course. When the hotel opened there was a dainty bar fitted up exclusively for feminine patrons. It was presided over by a courtly English butler, and every last detail was carefully planned to meet the approval of women. To the manager's intense surprise, however, women began to gather upon the delicate glasses and tempting bottles on the pretty shelves. Nobody came. The tearoom was popular, but the bar was forsaken. Hastily the manager made some changes. Then it was rededicated, this time to men.

First Come-----First Served

Why farm on high priced, worn out land when the richest virgin soil is waiting you in the great prairie province of Manitoba, Canada. In many parts of the United States you have to spend as much money to fertilize an acre of your farm as a fresh, rich, virgin acre will cost you in Manitoba.

Go where you can prosper, where you will find perfect health, where you can earn a farm in a few years time at the most—many farmers have paid for their farms with one crop—where it does not take a life time of drudgery to make a competence and where energetic efforts bring riches quickly.

at remarkably low prices—the land was but opened with railroad facilities last year and is but little settled during the one season. Let us send you literature and tell you of the magnificent climate, the wonderful soil, and crop yields—why 131,114 of the best farmers from this country emigrated to Canada last year.

The best land is being taken first; don't wait, send for our literature today. Thousands are taking their choice, why not you?

We will be taking parties to this country all season and would be glad to hear from any interested.

THERE'S one fact about this store that's as important for you to know as for us to have you know; and as soon as you know it, and are sure you know it, we shall have no further uncertainty as to where you'll buy your things to wear.

IT'S the fact that high quality is an asset here, not simply an advertising theme. The knowledge that when you buy you need not be uncertain as to the merits of the merchandise is valuable knowledge; there is no risk in choosing where everything is good; the only question for you is how much to pay.

There's a corresponding question for us—How much can we give? We try to answer it by giving all we can; the margin of profit to you is more important than the margin of profit to us.

That may sound to you so self-sacrificing in us as to be untrue; but if you think it over you'll see that it's neither; but, on the contrary, it's good business sense.

Everything in this store is as good quality as we can get; we try to maintain the quality standard in our service as in our goods; we aim to give more value for the price you pay than anybody else.

We promise our customers satisfaction; we make a point of it because, while quality may be certain, prices fair to both of us, and values high in proportion to price, satisfaction is something for you to decide. We may do our part as well as we can; if you are not satisfied, we'll do what we can to satisfy you. Money back cheerfully if nothing else will do it.

LADIES GUESTS AT CLOSING MEETING

Men's Brotherhood of Congregational Church Held Ladies' Night Banquet Last Evening.

Members of the Men's Brotherhood of the Congregational church held their Ladies' Night banquet last evening in the parlors of the church, bringing to a close their present season. Officers for next year were elected at the meeting last night, the following being selected on motion of H. C. Duff, president, F. H. Bunker, first vice-president, E. T. Fish, second vice-president, F. J. Lowth, secretary, Roy C. Palmer, treasurer, W. O. Newhouse, and chairman of the program committee, O. E. Ostreich. O. E. Ostreich was toastmaster last evening.

At 6:45 the dinner was served to the members and their guests, young ladies from the high school doing the serving, and a program of interest was presented. The program opened with a selection by the orchestra, and a quartet composed of the Mesdames Babler, Roanman, David and Foster sang. Toastmaster Ostreich made a brief speech, welcoming the guests of the evening, and Miss Grace Murphy rendered a selection on the piano.

The speaker of the evening was the Rev. E. C. Uddike of the First Congregational church of Madison. While not confining his remarks to a set subject, he emphasized the need of the cooperation of the brotherhood with the pastor and with the church; the necessity of displaying an aggressive spirit in the work of spreading and encouraging the teachings of the church. The speaker stated that the modernizing influences of the church doctrine were fully as necessary in this age of complex civilization and business struggles, with the prevalence of materialism and devotion to secular matters, as in the early days of the church. He emphasized the fact that the spirit of Christianity was the force which could overcome the tendency to be wholly abandoned to material things.

Some weeks ago, the editor of an Ohio daily newspaper received a letter from Preston, Kansas, stating that a bachelor club of sixteen members were tired of single life, and wanted some Ohio girls to come west and make their homes happy. The story was published, and already letters were being received from the girls.

DINNER STORIES

"The life Bishop Mackay-Smith," said a Philadelphia clergyman, "didn't believe in pulpit exaggerations. He didn't believe, I mean, that a divine had any right to take an anecdote to tell it as though it were a true episode that had happened to himself."

"He once illustrated what he meant by telling about a minister who was entertaining a guest with an account of a fishing excursion in California when his little daughter said: 'If that true, or are you preaching, papa?'"

Madame Muerterlinck, on the French line pier in New York praised the Harlem flat ardently.

"Our foreign flats, beside your Harlem ones," she said, "seem as slow as—slow as—well, as a Provencal railway."

"In white, sun-drenched, glittering Provencal there is a railway remarkable for its slowness."

"I was waiting at a Provencal station one day and my train was three hours behind time, out of patience at last, I said to the station master: 'Just then a dog came trotting up the line, and the station master smiled."

"Oh, yes, madame," he said. "It's bound to arrive soon now. Here comes the engineer's dog."

Joseph H. Clout, at the Three Arts Club recently, told a story about a pair of sweethearts.

"Two young girls," he said, "were drinking tea at Sherry's when a young man passed. As he passed the first girl blushed, displayed a beautiful ring on her white hand, and murmured: 'Well, Jack and I are to be married Easter week.'"

"But," said the other girl, "I thought you had thrown Jack over!"

"Oh, so I did," the first replied, "but—'Oh, so I did' the first replied, 'but—'but you know how a girl throws!'"

Later that week, the plant wizard was talking at a reception in Los Angeles about foot jokes.

"A Los Angeles editor," he said, "played a foot joke on a reporter last

$3.00

This is as good shoe news for women as we can recollect having to tell at any time. The shoes are the daintiest and most attractive styles of the season. They are beautifully made—squarely up to the best $3.50 and $4.00 standards. They should give double satisfaction on account of the little pricing.

No Matter What Price You Pay, You Want The Very Best That Comes At That Price

Our shoes have established a standard in women's footwear just a little higher than anyone else has been able to reach, and women who have once worn these shapely well-fitting, splendidly wearing shoes, will not be persuaded into paying the same price elsewhere for a shoe less satisfactory.

As famous as we are for shoes we've never had a better assortment—or greater value—better styles and better made shoes are not to be found for $3.00. You'll say so, too, when you see them.
